

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Wheeling, W. Va.

The one hundred and eighth council of Diocese of Virginia sends greetings to the Council of the Diocese of West Virginia, with hearty congratulations to Bishop Peterkin on the twenty-fifth anniversary of his consecration with thanks to the Great Head of the Church for the work which has been done in his Diocese during that time.

Mr. B. M. Ambler read the following letter which was ordered printed in the Journal:

7 KAWAJUCHI CHO, Osaka, Japan,

April 8, 1903.

B. M. AMBLER, Esq.,

Parkersburg, W. Va.

MY DEAR BROTHER:

Having learned through you that a memorial of the consecration of Bishop Peterkin, as the first Bishop of West Virginia, is to be held at St. Matthew's Church, Wheeling, on Ascension Day of this year, I feel that at such a time the ends of the earth, as it were, ought to come together to do him honor.

In the absorbing demands of a work, which has been steadily growing in his Diocese, Bishop Peterkin might have pleaded his inability to take an active interest in the spread of the Gospel in heathen lands. It is well known, however, that there have been few meetings of the Board of Managers for Foreign and Domestic Missions which Bishop Peterkin has not attended, when it has been possible for him to do so, and that he has visited both Brazil and Porto Rico on two occasions on behalf of the church. I might mention many deep personal obligations to Bishop Peterkin, bestowed upon me while I was at work within his diocese, but I want to send this letter as an humble representative of the Japan Mission.

It is the hope of this Missionary Community, I am sure, that God may long spare the life of one who has done so much to spread His Kingdom in the hearts of men. The Empire of Japan has not yet come to acknowledge our Lord Jesus Christ, but when she does, she will have good reason to feel deep gratitude to those who, like Bishop Peterkin, have shown unflagging zeal in the cause of missions.

Hoping then, that you will at that meeting add the greetings of the missions of the Church in Japan, I am

Very affectionately yours,

JOHN C. AMBLER,
Missionary to Japan.

Mr. Geo. R. Wendling offered the following preamble and resolution which was adopted:

It is the sense of this Council that the admirable Historical Sermon delivered on Ascension day 1903, in St. Matthew's Church, at Wheeling, W. Va., by the Rev. John S. Gibson, is worthy of preservation in permanent form, and of wide circulation.

The Secretary of the Council is therefore instructed to request of the Rev. John S. Gibson a copy of the sermon and cause it to be printed in the Journal of this Council. The Secretary is also instructed to have 3,000 copies of the sermon printed and bound for distribution in the Diocese and among its friends, and to send a copy to each member of the House of Bishops.

The Report of the Trustee of the Episcopal Fund was received and referred to the Finance Committee. (See Appendix A.)

The Trustees of the Permanent Fund submitted their report. (See Appendix A.)

On motion the Rev. R. R. Swope, D. D., the Rev. N. S. Thomas and other visiting clergy were invited to seats on the floor of the Council.

The Bishop then read his annual address as follows:

DECEMBER.

Monday, 1st: Went to New York, where during the week, I attended the Advent Missionary meeting, and by appointment, spoke three times. On Tuesday, 2nd, in St. Andrew's Church, Harlem, and on Sunday, 7th, in St. James Church, Fordham, and in the Church of the Incarnation, Brooklyn.

Tuesday, 9th: Attended the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Managers of our missions.

I reached home on the evening of Wednesday, 10th, and on the next day Thursday, 11th, because I seemed to have developed a bad cold, I had the Chaplains to come to my house to conduct an examination appointed for that day.

On Friday, 12th, the Doctor forbade my keeping appointments which I had at Fairmont and Mannington. At this time I hoped I would be sufficiently recovered to enable me to go to Clarksburg for Sunday, 21st, but my expectation was disappointed, and I found myself at last compelled to give up all prospect of immediate work and to take to my bed. I had no idea at the time that I was entering upon a long illness which would disable me for months. But, so it was. I found myself completely prostrated by an attack of acute Bronchitis, and after two months had passed, and I began to rally from the attack, the Doctor ordered me south. I am thankful to say that the treatment and advice I received was justified in the result. After two months absence, I reached home on Saturday, April 25th, 1903, by the blessing of God well again and ready to enter anew upon my much loved work.

I cannot forbear to take this opportunity to express my high appreciation of the affectionate solicitude manifested on my behalf all over the Diocese, and at the same time to congratulate you that you had already made such provision for the contingency, that the abundant and most acceptable labors of Bishop Gravatt fully supplied my lack of service. This has been to me but one to be added to the many and constant causes of thankfulness I have for his faithful and loving co-operation in all our work. His labors must continually grow greater as mine become less; but after my complete recovery from my recent sickness, I am encouraged to hope that we may long labor together, and be mutually helpful in bearing the care of all the Churches.

APRIL.

Sunday, 5, 1903: I was able to-day for the first time for four months to officiate in public. I preached in St. Timothy's Church, Wilson, N. C.

Tuesday, 7th: I made an address in the same church.

Sunday, 12: Easter Day. I preached in Emmanuel Church, Henrico Co., Va.

Sunday, 19th: I preached in St. James' Church, Richmond.

Sunday, 26: Resuming my regular visitations, I preached in Trinity Church, Parkersburg, and confirmed 14.

Tuesday, 28: I preached in St. Paul's Church, Weston, and confirmed 6.

Wednesday, 29: I preached in St. Paul's Chapel, Middle Run, about four miles from Weston, and confirmed 8. This is the 66th New Church building I have been permitted to preach in since I came to take charge of the work in West Virginia, twenty-five years ago, and there is one other, the Chapel at Spilman, recently consecrated by Bishop Gravatt, which I have not yet visited. Fourteen years ago, in company with the Rev. Dr. Lacy, I visited the neighborhood of Middle Run, and preached. Under the wise and energetic labors of Mr. Grinnan this work has developed until now a comfortable and slightly Chapel has been erected, at a cost of about $900, and the outlook for a congregation is very promising. The people deserve great credit in that they have put their own shoulder to the wheel, and with but little outside help, have completed and paid for their Chapel. Thus is our Church to grow in this Diocese when chapels like this shall spring up around the existing centres of influence. Ought not every strong congregation thus to be strengthening their stakes and lengthening their cords.

MAY.

Sunday, 3: A. M. and P. M. St. John's, Charleston, confirming at the morning service 8 persons.

Monday, 4: At Paint Creek attended the annual meeting of the Board of Directors and Board of Managers of the Sheltering Arms Hospital.

Wednesday, 6: Preached in St. Andrew's, Wheeling, and confirmed 14. There is abundant evidence of God's blessing upon this growing work.

Sunday, 10: A. M. Trinity, Shepardstown. Good Shepard, Duffield.

Tuesday, 12: Meeting of Missionary Board in New York.

Sunday, 17: A. M. Trinity Church, Huntington. Consecrated the Church. With the Rector, Rev. Jno. S. Gibson, were present and assisting in the services Rev. A. M. Lewis of Powellton, W. Va., and Rev. Mr. Hampton, of Ironton, O. This church building had been in use since 1886, but owing to the shifting membership of a new town and city and the heavy strain upon the congregation incident to still further equipping the Parish by building a suitable rectory, and passing from a mission station into an independent Parish, involving, of course, the raising of a much larger local revenue, the Church was never able before to free itself from debt. The whole Church property is admirable located and suitable for its purposes. The congregation is greatly to be congratulated on the happy result of many years of hard labor and patient waiting.

P. P. M. Trinity, Huntington. Confirmed 6. Grace Church, Kenova, and confirmed 1.

ADDRESS

It is with peculiar pleasure, my Brethren and Friends, that I welcome you to this Council Meeting in St. Matthews' Church, Wheeling—where twenty-five years ago I had committed to me the charge of the Diocese of West Virginia. All that relates to what we may call our anniversary exercises, has received, and will receive, such attention during our sessions, that I shall content myself at this time with a bare allusion to it. By God's good hand upon us we have come so far on the way, and in view of all our experience, in undertaking and carrying on what, by high authority had been pronounced impossible, we may well thank God and take courage. There are only two of the clergy, beside myself, present here today who were then connected with the Diocese, and many of the laymen, then prominent, have passed away. But what if the workmen change, the work still goes on. Let us be faithful wherever God has placed us, and where He keeps us, working while it is called today, because the night cometh when no man can work.

BISHOP WHITTLE.

During the exercises of our last commencement week at the Seminary, it pleased God to take to his rest Bishop Whittle, the fifth Bishop of the undivided Diocese of Virginia. For ten years i. e. from May 1868 to May, 1878, he had the churches of West Virginia under his care, first as assistant to Bishop Johns, and then as Bishop of Virginia. His first charge was in West Virginia, in Kanawha County, and he was always deeply interested in the welfare of the people, and in the growth of the Church. During all these years since my consecration he had only once visited the Diocese, and that was on the occasion of the consecration of Bishop Gravatt, Nov. 10, 1899, and he seemed then to show some of his old time vigor. He had, however, been in poor health for years, and it was only after a long and painful illness, at the last, that he passed away from earth to Paradise.

Bishop Whittle was a man of very marked personality. He had deep convictions and always the courage of those convictions. Frank and absolutely truthful in what he did and said, he seemed at times, to those who did not know him well, to be somewhat harsh and unyielding; but those of us who were admitted into the circle of his friendship knew what a tender heart was all the time beating in his manly bosom. Life was a more serious thing with him than with most persons, and he could not but be at times depressed at worldliness and error in the Church. Knowing nothing in his own experience save a pure intent, and seeing what he did see very clearly, he could not but chafe at every word or deed that was less than absolutely truthful and direct. Strictly evangelical in his views, he always seemed to feel a profound responsibility for the maintenance of the Church which was no less the Church of his love than of his heritage—in the spirit of the great Reformers, and its continued working along the lines marked out by them, and accepted by our forefathers. In an Episcopate of thirty-four years he never spared himself, but was instant in season and out of season. His administration was exact and painstaking, and his preaching clear and strong, and always characterized by that intense earnestness which in sacred things is eloquence. While diffident and retiring in disposition, he was approachable and genial, though uncompromising to all he conceived to be error in life or doctrine. He keenly felt his enforced retirement from active service for some years before his death, and his nearest friends could not but feel that it was far better for him to depart and be with Christ than to continue the so painful struggle for life.

In these days of so much mental and moral timidity, when many are ready to follow the trend of the multitude in one way or the other and even good men are often swayed by public opinion somewhat to relax their hold upon, even if they do not compromise the truth, and wink at what they should disallow and oppose, it is positively refreshing to think of the stalwart frame and stout heart of the late Bishop of Virginia—not only a brave but an absolutely intrepid man. Certainly you could say of him as he sleeps in expectation of the great awakening, as was said of the Scotch Reformer, John Knox: "Here lies one who never feared the face of man."

GENERAL CLERGY RELIEF FUND.

This Fund appeals to us very strongly, and ought to receive far more support than it does. If the object be properly presented, and an offering be taken up in every congregation during the year, as the General Convention suggests, we could make a very considerable addition to the General Fund, and so render the Society more able to help us and others.

I have never been able myself to see my way clear to advocate the merging of our Diocesan Fund into the General Clergy Relief Fund. There is under present conditions a flexibility of administration which makes our fund more largely and directly useful than it could otherwise be. Still we must recognize that our condition is different from that of many other Dioceses, e g. as the agent has recently stated in a circular letter, "The statistics of clerical changes prove that only a small percentage of clergymen remain in one diocese all their lives, therefore, the Diocesan relief fund they have built up in their early ministry is frequently the very fund to which they cannot appeal in later years when they need it, through no fault of their own the great body of the clergy are ineligible to local funds by reason of removals or canonical requirements." Now while this is very forcible where it does apply, still it does not apply to us because our fund, such as it is, is applicable to the whole body of canonically resident clergymen, and is not in any wise subject to the limitations and conditions that so often prevail elsewhere.

The one beneficiary, a lady, we have on the General Clergy Relief Fund list is there under peculiar circumstances; her husband having served in what is now West Virginia when it was part and parcel of the Diocese of Virginia, and never having had connection with our Diocese. I consented after some hesitation to endorse the application because the late Bishop of Virginia disclaimed all responsibility in the matter, and it did not seem right that this good woman, the widow of a faithful man, should for lack of some endorsement fail of even the very small stipend to which she was entitled.

All this by way of explanation of our relation to the General Fund.

and now it seems to me that with our own fund provided for by the offerings made on Christmas Day, and with perhaps $5,000 accumulated, that we might well heed the suggestions of the General Convention and give to this object not only one regular offering during the year, but also a portion from the communion alms. Though a small and weak diocese, we are perhaps better able than a good many others to care for our own. We have a solemn obligation to the whole Church and I trust shall the more realize the responsibility and rise to something like a proper measure of our duty.

REPORTS.

We have been for some time working on a blank form for our Parochial Reports, and have at last settled upon one that promises with a few unimportant modification, to be generally acceptable. Most of the clergy have adhered to the form as published by the Council, but some have departed from it in such wise as to make the tabulation of their reports with the others almost a matter of impossibility. Would it not be best in every case to adhere closely to the authorized form, and to express, by note, such statements and explanations as the form does not provide for. I find that in some of the reports there is included under the general head of money, raised by the congregation, certain sums that have been contributed from the outside, or raised in some other way than directly by the congregation. To speak of nothing more, if it be remembered that such figures furnish the chief basis on which the apportionment for General Missions is assigned, it will at once be perceived that it may be a very serious matter. As far as I can tell after a hasty examination the printing of our reports exactly as received would add to our apportionment for the next year the sum of at least $400. The whole difficulty could be avoided if the clergy would include in their financial summary only such sums as may fairly be said to be raised, that is, paid or contributed by the congregation. Provision is made for the proper mention of money that comes in from other sources.

THE SHELTERING ARMS HOSPITAL.

The annual meeting of the Board of the Sheltering Arms Hospital, which was held this year on Monday, May 4th, was distinctly encouraging, in spite of the anxieties caused us by labor troubles among the miners; the income of the Hospital was $7,936.48, which was within five dollars of the expenses; part of which expenses consisted in necessary repairs. During the year, 272 patients were cared for; of this number 162 were white (100 males and 62 females), and 110 were colored (82 males and 28 females). All but 50 of our patients were from the mines, nine-tenths of them free; the total number of nursing days was 7,000.

We have received more than usual from the churches during the past year, in the way of money and of supplies. The training school for nurses has been put into operation, and we have had five pupils in attendance.

Important improvements are in contemplation for the coming year. in the shape of a laundry building, which shall also have lodging rooms, that may be used for nurses or for patients. The amount of work done by the Hospital has steadily increased each year, and we believe it is more than ever worthy the confidence and support of the public.

THE REYNOLDS MEMORIAL HOSPITAL.

The number of patients for the past year was 499, of which 270 were charity cases. The total expenses of the Hospital were $11,309.71, of which amount $4,456 was raised by the personal application of the Superintendent. The additions and improvements made during the past year amounted to $39,000, all paid for. The Hospital is valued at $102,000. In January last there were four graduates of the training school, to whom Bishop Gravatt delivered diplomas, as I was detained by sickness. The presence of a hundred guests showed the general interest. Regular Sunday evening services are now maintained in the improved chapel at the Hospital.

THE EPISCOPAL HALL.

The Episcopal Hall at Morgantown has been working steadily and successfully during the past year. With the larger and more cordial support of our Church people throughout the Diocese it would still more fully meet what demands might properly be made upon it. There have been difficulties connected with its management which it would be useless to detail at this time and place, but it has always had, in spite of these difficulties, a fair measure of success. I am in close touch with the Warden, Rev. Mr. Marley, and the Proctor, Capt. Wm. C. Marshall, and they continue to enjoy my entire confidence and esteem. During the past year fifteen boys have been cared for, and we have good prospects of more for the next session of the University. In some respects the past year has been the most satisfactory in the history of the Hall. If we can move steadily along the line of our chosen plan of work, we shall be content, even if the rate of development be somewhat below the sanguine expectations of friends. We have now on our clergy list the name of one who was trained there, and at the Seminary next year the Hall will be represented by four out of our five students. Some of these days perhaps some one will see the possibilities of such an institution, and so equip and endow it that we shall be a still greater power for the Church and for God in the community and in the State.

DIOCESAN MISSIONS.

In regard to our Diocesan Missions, you will have the report of the committee before you, and will learn from that something of the work in detail, but on this theme there is always something more to be said. It is the very backbone of our work, and we cannot nurture it too carefully. I must confess I would like to see a greater and more manifest enthusiasm about this work all over the Diocese. It is a serious question in my mind whether it ever can be properly supported and pushed unless individuals here and there, with their direct personal support, supplement the offerings usually made in our churches. If our people, or at least those who have the greater financial ability, could sometimes, in private, be reminded of the supreme importance of this work, and the part which it must play in the development of the Diocese, they would oftener make special contributions of larger sums than they are accustomed to contribute through the offertory. And yet during the twenty-five years past, only once has any thing considerable been done in this line, when a good woman undertook herself to pay, and did pay, the missionary stipends of two of our clergy during the past year. If five more persons could have been found to give as this good woman did $500.00, and ten to give $250.00, and ten to give $100.00, and twenty to give $50.00, leaving smaller sums to swell the offertory, we might be relieved of the great pressure upon us, and so lengthen our cords and strengthen our stakes that our Zion might rejoice, throughout its coasts, even to the utmost bounds. One exception must be made to the remarks just made, in that various women of the Church have together during the past year raised and paid into our treasury the sum of $350 for special missionary work in the Diocese.

The one thing that has chiefly troubled me during all these years of my service in West Virginia, and that still troubles me, is the thought of the poor support our missionary clergy, especially, receive. It is by no means sufficient for such comfortable and decent living as would ensure and promote the highest measure of efficiency in their work. How some of them manage to get along is more than I can tell. We owe them a great debt, and I trust we shall learn more fully to pay it. That I am speaking the words of truth and soberness will appear when I say, that to enable us to fix the salaries of our twenty-eight or thirty missionaries at a minimum of $800.00 and a Rectory, would require an addition of upwards of $4,000.00 to our annual Missionary Fund,—further comment is unnecessary.

My attention has been seriously turned during the last few months to the advisability of employing Deaconesses or Bible readers to aid us in this work, especially in the mining sections of the State. The population in these sections is, at the best, hard to get at and influence. It is often so scattered up and down the valleys and over the hills, that it is difficult to get the people to a central place of worship, and when to this you add the further difficulties that arise from the meetings the men often have on Sundays, and the constant strain of the household work and the care of the children on the women, the promise of great advantage from public services is much smaller than the casual observer would think. If in the various communities where we now have missions, and in others where opportunity offers, we could establish Deaconesses, or Bible readers, as far as possible two together, we might hope to reach especially the women and children in their homes, and give them more of a training in what they ought to know and believe than they are likely otherwise to get. Such methods may not have the promise of organized congregations rapidly formed, but it will certainly lay foundations on which we, or those who come after us, may build, and if persistently and faithfully followed it must result in sowing the good seed in many places where it will bear much fruit.

In carrying out such a plan I do not consider it by any means necessary that, in every instance, we should have formally trained woman. We must have in our congregation many women who already would be able, with very little preparation, to carry on such work. It would be well if the clergy would be on the lookout for such. West Virginia has made large contributions to the ranks of trained nurses during the past few years, why not to the ranks of Deaconesses, or Bible women, to take up that work which calls aloud for them.

It will be interesting and encouraging to know that during the last six months one Deaconess and two Bible women or helpers have been secured for the work in West Virginia.

GENERAL MISSIONS.

But we all know that our interest must not stop with our home work. We are in many ways pledged to a wider outlook over a greatly extended field. Just at this time the Church is engaged in what might be called an experiment, i. e. through her Board of Managers she has inaugurated what is called the Apportionment Plan, in the distinct effort to make us all the more realize our personal responsibilities, and to bring into line those congregations, be they large or small, which have, for some cause or other, been holding back from year to year.

I think that at the least, such a plan, so presented and urged, deserves a fair trial. If that fair trial be given, we shall be able to modify and amend as may be found necessary, until we make it more generally available and efficient. Our loyalty to Christ must prompt us to follow the lead of the Church in this matter, while we pray for light and guidance upon our onward way.

I think that we, the Bishops and Clergy, are often at fault just here. What we need to further the work of missions in all its departments, is a more decided leadership. I have often said that in time past, and I desire to say it again. But I am afraid there are some called leaders who do not lead at all. Leadership in such matters cannot be realized by mild intimations as to the duty of our congregations; there must not only be personal enthusiasm, but the exercise—judicious, I grant you—but the real exercise of authority. When our people are sceptical about missions, or impatient of reminders of duty, nothing is done by those who touch the subject only with gloved hands, or perhaps not at all. Certainly in no decisive, compelling way. Yes, my Brethren, the importance of leadership deserves to be emphasized as it has not been. As some one says, let us put to usury that talent which sets another to work. The leader must use definiteness and persistence, he must uplift ideals, and to be the leader is the great responsibility of the pastor. Yes! he is not only the instructor but the leader of his congregation, he must not only care for their souls, but direct their activities. Too often I fear this is not done. You know the temptation, how hard it is wisely, and firmly, and kindly to resist it. How much easier to swim with the current, and yield all too easily to the desire of the people for what they call parochial advance, a desire that shows itself in the way of fine buildings—or at least in buildings distinctly beyond the means of the congregation, and whose erection cripples them for active and aggressive work, it may be for years; or that shows itself in decorations, or elaborate music, which, after all you can say about them, are really of secondary importance. So it is that time and energy are consumed, and as we have only a very limited amount of them, the greater interests of the Church sadly suffer. I say again that for the more vigorous and successful prosecution of our missionary work at home and abroad, we need a more decided leadership on the part of the clergy. Shall we not the more study to command and inspire our people with a high enthusiasm for the work that God calls them to do in extending His kingdom in the world.

THE PROPOSED CHANGE IN THE NAME OF THE CHURCH.

We are all aware of the particular phase which this question has assumed, at this time. The last General Convention, acting through a standing committee, has brought the matter before each Diocese in convention assembled, asking them to say whether they think a change necessary or expedient at this time and, if so, inviting them to designate the name they would prefer. This brings the whole question before us, whether we will or not, and necessitates an expression of opinion on our part.

In these conditions you find the reason for my special allusion to the subject today, and I think it right that I should not only formally bring the matter to your attention, but give a few words of explanation.

Some of you may remember that in our Council of 1887 we discussed this question pretty freely, having not only an expression of opinion by the Bishop, but a full report of a committee, of which the present Bishop of Virginia was chairman. I am free to say that my own opinions have undergone very little, if any, change since that time. Of course we have all been compelled to think about the proposed change in the name of the Church a good deal during these years, because the subject has been brought forward time and again, and so we have had time and opportunity to make up our minds about it. The question has been discussed from almost every conceivable standpoint, and whatever our own opinions may be we are bound to give to every argument all proper consideration.

There has been so much writing on the subject since the last General Convention, and there is likely to be so much more before the next, that I hardly deem it necessary to enter upon any extended discussion of the matter. Still I venture to present certain considerations which reflect my own views on the subject, and which, as I have kept in touch with the clergy and the laity of the Diocese, I am led to believe, reflect their views also.

In trying to approach the subject with an open mind, I have, of course, read a great many newspaper articles pro and con, and also some pamphlets, and I shall no doubt be constantly using their arguments and even their words. I am glad to adopt them so far as I can, if we can thus get this whole matter intelligently before us, so that we can act with judgment and discretion.

It is very important to note just how this matter has come before the Church by the action of the committee. Not only are the Dioceses asked to say whether they consider a change of name expedient at this time, but they are asked, at the same time, to designate the name they prefer. The result has been such as to show considerable confusion of mind existing in regard to the whole matter. Whatever our views as to the origin and fitness of our present name, it is a serious question whether practically any change can be considered desirable, unless with something like unanimity, some more suitable name can be suggested. Now there are no end of suggestions, but it is safe to say that each one commends itself to only a limited number of people. The truth is that it is entirely possible that there may be some who consider that our present designation is, on the whole, inadequate, and, if you choose, to some extent misleading,—at least to those who do not keep in mind the events of our past—and yet they would not venture to propose that the name, at this time, be changed; much less to suggest a substitute.

However, some do avow their preference, as a recent writer in one of our Church papers, boldly says. "Let us be straightforward and outspoken, and declare ourselves to be Catholic, and members of the One Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church. And let us not think, for a single moment, that such a declaration of the truth will lessen the number of those who turn to the American Church to find therein the rest they seek. Much more probable is it that when we boldly hang our Catholic banner on the walls, thousands will turn to us both from the Roman Communion, and from our Protestant Brethren who would not seek us if we continued to exist under the cloud of Protestant Episcopal." Of course doctors will differ, but I am disposed to say that one who could write these words has a very different outlook over the Church and over the country from that which I have and I believe from that which you have. The vision is, in my judgment, an iridescent dream.

We do, in the creeds, declare our belief in the Holy Catholic Church: but to use the word in this general sense, is a very different thing from so using it as, even remotely, to intimate that that we had a sole right to the use of the word Catholic.

It has been forcibly said that a name is applied to a thing to designate what it is. Now the word Catholic means universal, and when applied to the Church properly indicates the whole of the Christian body, embracing all its parts. It would follow from this that to call the Protestant Episcopal Church the Catholic Church must have one or the other of two meanings.

It must either mean that the Protestant Episcopal Church regards all the other religious bodies which claim to belong to the Church of Christ as parts of itself, or it must mean that none of them belong to it, and that the body now called the Protestant Episcopal Church, is alone the Church of Christ. As it is well known that the Protestant Episcopal Church does not make either of these contentions, it is plain that the title "Catholic Church of America" is misleading and inappropriate.

And now in regard to dropping the word Protestant from our title. We must not forget what was so clearly set forth in the late Council of Pennsylvania, both in the address of the Bishop and to the report of that committee on that address, viz: That while the word Protestant was first used in 1529 when a minority of the Diet of Spiers protested against false doctrine and wrong practice, yet that there was another element of protest that was equally prominent in the first use of this word, viz.: an appeal to a rightly constituted general council of the whole Catholic Church. In so far it therefore expressed the ground of unity on which all the Catholic reformers of the 16th century could stand consistently together in their resistance to the usurpations and corruptions of the Papacy; and that same appeal to truly Catholic authority is the very ground on which the Church of England planted herself as a Catholic Church in the commotions of those times, and which she has consistently maintained to this day.

With some I believe the proposed change is advocated without the full consideration of such facts as these, mainly because they desire to have what will appear to them to be a more technically accurate and more fully descriptive name. Perhaps this appears to some minds a short and easy way to eliminate the danger of the abuse of individualism by cutting off the name which represents and symbolizes it, as if we had any guarantee that it would in effect prove any remedy at all, forgetful too that it may be the peculiar mission of this Church of ours to demonstrate the fact, and why not partly by her very name, that evangelical liberty and apostolic order are not, when rightly understood, mutually exclusive, but rather mutually inclusive principles.

And then, I fear, that some would like to drop the word "Protestant" from our title, because they dislike that which it properly implies.

This question was first seriously brought up at the General Convention in Chicago in 1886, and although many may have voted for a change of name, who were loyal to the great Protestant principles of our Church, yet I think I am fairly and charitably stating a simple fact when I say, that the heart of the movement was then, and always has been, the spirit that objects to the name of Protestant, not mainly because in the opinion of many, it does not sufficiently affirm the historical continuity of the church, but because it all too plainly implies and affirms certain well known doctrinal principles, which at the time of the Reformation were brought to the front and emphasized as against the superstitious beliefs and customs of the middle ages. You may put the points at issue with more or less distinctness, in various ways, but I am content to adopt as my own the statement that the central idea of Protestantism is that the primary relation of the soul is to God Himself, and that the soul receives spiritual life and strength direct from Him by the immediate influence of the Holy Spirit, entering the soul by every avenue which faith offers for the reception of that influence, including of course the means of grace found in the Christian Church, and that this, because the primary relation of the soul is to God Himself, that the great work of the Christian ministry is to proclaim Christ the Eternal Word, who declares God to man, and to try to bring men to Christ, that they may know God and trust and love and obey Him, and receive pardon and peace and holiness from Him.

And on the other hand that the central idea of what for lack of a better name we call anti-Protestantism is substantially this that the primary relationship of the soul is to the church, and that the ministers of the church convey spiritual life and strength to the soul through the agency of the material element used in the sacraments, and through the spiritual efficacy of words officially uttered, and that therefore the great work of the Christian minister is to proclaim the Church, and to manipulate sacramental material and to articulate ecclesiastical formulas. I believe that this statement with but little modification in one way or another, will fairly present the issue involved in the Reformation controversies.

Whatever you may say about the word Protestant as having in any wise outlived and survived its original application, it is in itself a good word as meaning witnessing for the truth and against error, and, as I reminded you a moment ago, appealing to the Catholic consent of antiquity for its warrant, and having all this in mind, it is not too much now to say that perhaps there never was a time when we could so ill afford to lose or impair the meaning of this word as a characteristic of our Church. One of our Bishops has recently expressed the opinion that if we are to have a growing power in this country today, if we are to be of service in the new countries to which we have been sent, Mexico and Cuba and Brazil and Porto Rico and the Philippines, which stand out before the world as Christian countries with but little religion, and if we are to stem the tide which is running through some portions of our own land, muddy with its spring of mediaeval terms and modes of worship, we must hold fast to the name and spirit of the Church as defining and distinguishing our function and office, contending for the faith once for all delivered to the saints, and against the errors and extravagances of certain men, crept in unawares; and creeping on, too, a laughing stock to Roman and a stumbling block to Protestant Christians, in the movement toward united Christendom.

While recognizing the broad and comprehensive principles on which the Reformation of the Anglican Church was conducted would we not be wise to adopt the advice of the late Bishop Alonzo Potter in being willing to leave to churches more superstitious and as we believe less pure, usages which, though they may have the sanction of antiquity, are inconsistent with that simplicity which we have been taught to love; or which having been made directly subservient to gross errors, or having become inseparably associated with such errors in the minds of a large portion of the Christian world, were on that account wisely laid aside by the early Reformers.

May we not sum up the matter in the fewest possible words when we put this question as to the two principle names proposed. "Shall it be American Catholic? But that is imitating Rome in her restriction of the universal by the particular adjective. Shall it be the American Church? But that is an assumption of an untruth, or, at least, a very previous statement of a yet unfulfilled hope."

So, my Dear Brethren, I have put this question imperfectly before you. Shall we not all indulge the hope that this great Church of ours shall not in any wise compromise her position by making any such change in her name as would lessen the force of her appeal to those Protestant churches about us whose hold on the essentials of catholicity we may think if you choose to be somewhat defective—in the delusive hope of thereby strengthening our own position, or weakening that of any other communion.

A recent newspaper article has pertinently said that sensible men would not spend time in trying to get the name changed, unless the change meant something. The result of the success of this present movement would be not simply to continue the Protestant Episcopal Church as it is, only under a new name, but to make the new name, at least in the popular mind, stand for something which it is claimed the present name does not stand for. It is not too much to say that a new name means a new Church in some of its relations, conceptions, or ideals, and this may abundantly appear in the result, for if the name be changed at the instance of those whose conceptions and ideals of the Church are to say the least, very different, perhaps I might say almost radically different from ours, then they will quite naturally claim to be the true exponents of the Catholicity of the Church, which changed its name at their request, in order to give emphasis or expression to certain ideals which they represent. We can hardly think that such a result would be desirable "at this time."

I am happy in believing that these annual Councils mean a great deal to our people, both clergy and laity. I am sure we do a good thing in resisting the modern method of rush and hurry, which would have us transact all business in a few hours, and separate again with no refreshment of spirit, but simply wearied in body and mind. And when you consider that the members of our Council must average four or five hundred miles of travel in attending its sessions, it seems vastly important that we should adhere to our unwritten law and remain together there a few days—at least the most of us—in order that we may be somewhat filled with each others company, and take sweet counsel together about all our work. It seems important to notice this from time to time, and especially because since the Council of 1900, no less than 22 out of 44 names on our list are the names of men who have come to us in this time, and cannot be expected to know the customs and traditions of the Diocese.

I think I am as anxious as any one can be to maintain services regularly at all our Churches and missions, yes! and even at the stations, and in the outlying regions, but I am fully convinced that by prolonging our stay here together that the people are great gainers even if they do forego a few services. Our Council is meant to be a school for the clergy. It is our retreat, our protracted meeting, and if we use it aright we shall not only gather new ideas from our Brethren to whom we are not so superior as some may be disposed to think, but we shall in some mysterious—may I not say providential way—be enlightened, and strengthened and refreshed. We shall catch the spirit of the whole body, have new heart and life to put into our work; have our ideals enlarged, and our enthusiasms increased and stimulated.

I like to think of our clergy everywhere taking pleasure in their work, and anxious to find out in every way how they can make themselves more efficient in winning souls to Christ, but it is a great pity we have to be so much to ourselves; and just because in a widely scattered Diocese like ours clerical fellowship is so difficult, we ought gladly to meet in Convocations and Councils that we may each one help the other by counsel and by sympathy.

I am full of hope for the future, and there is everywhere about us that which will justify such hope. The Diocese is, on the whole well equipped for its work—there is very little debt upon any of the churches; your general funds are supported with more system and liberality than ever before; your church buildings are more numerous; your clergy list is larger than ever in the history of the Diocese; your Bishops are strong to go in and out among you; the Church we love so well is daily growing in influence all over the State; and not only so but best of all we maintain among ourselves and toward all who love the Lord Jesus Christ peace, charity and good will.

Shall we not more earnestly pray that the good Lord will honor us by giving us a greater devotion to His service, and making us in every way instrumental among these people where our lot is cast, in turning many from darkness to light, in developing in them that righteousness which exalteth a nation and causing them to shun that sin which is a reproach to any people. God bless you dear Brethren and friends and make you to abound more and more in the work of the Lord.

The Rev. G. A. Gibbons moved to refer that part of the Bishop's address relating to change of the name of the Church, to a special committee. Adopted.

The Secretary presented a communication from the Committee of the General Convention relating to change of name, which was also referred to the special committee.

The Bishop appointed that committee as follows:

Rt. Rev. W. L. Gravatt,
Rev. G. W. Easter,
Rev. G. A. Gibbons.

Dr. G. A. Aschman,
Simms Powell,

The Rev. Dr. Moore, from the Committee on Admission of New Parishes, reported upon the subjoined application from Bluefield Mission. The report of the committee, together with appended resolution, was adopted.

At the congregational meeting of Christ Church, on Easter Monday night, April 13, 1903, it was decided to form a Parish from the Mission of Christ Church, Bluefield, W. Va., which has been in existence about 13 years.

A Vestry composed of 9 male members of the congregation was elected. The names are as follows:

Messrs. Geo. H. Wade, Treas.; Geo. H. Hill and R. C. Turner, Wardens; R. A. Lacy, Registrar; T. H. Becker, A. W. Howard, W. H. B. Loving; E. H. Smith, and F. R. Wadleigh.

The proposed Cure shall contain the territory within the district known as Beaver Pond District, Mercer Co., W. Va.

This District includes the corporation of the City of Bluefield, and the villages Ada, 4 miles distant on the East; Brush Fork, 2 miles distant on the West; Bethel, 4 miles distant on the South-east, and Belchers, 4 miles distant on the North.

The name of the proposed Cure shall be Bluefield Parish, and the name of the Parish Church shall be Christ Church.

The appointments for services, at present shall include the Parish Church, Bluefield; The Church of the Heavenly Rest, Princeton; and Athens; all in Mercer Co., W. Va.

The Parish lines will not include Princeton and Athens, but the Rector of the Parish Church will give the necessary ministrations and will have in charge the work at these places.

The apportionment for the Rector's salary at present will be as follows:

Christ Church, Bluefield, $500.00 annually; the Church of the Heavenly Rest, Princeton, $25.00 annually; the congregation at Athens, $25.00 annually, and the Missionary stipends $250.00 annually. The missionary appropriation is for mission work done outside the Parish bounds.

The present membership of the proposed Parish is 91, a net gain of 19 since the last report, more than three of whom are males. The congregation owns a church property and a Rectory, both free of debt.

The total contributions from the congregation during the Parochial year just past amounted to $1,230.00 and the total of all money raised was $1,666.00.

The congregation of Christ Church, Bluefield, has during the incumbency of the present minister, which dates from Dec. 1st, 1901; and to his knowledge since its organization, acceded to the doctrines, discipline and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States and to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of West Virginia, employing the Book of Common Prayer as the standard of worship and faith, and meeting all Diocesan and general assessments and apportionments.

We have taken this action only after consulting with the Bishop of the Diocese.

We have given him due notice of the organization of a Parish, and have to the best of our knowledge and ability fulfilled the requirements of Canon X "Of the Formation of New Parishes."

We ask to be received as a Parish into union with the Council of the Diocese of West Virginia.

GEO. H. HILL, Warden,

R. CLIF. TURNER, Warden.

R. A. LACY, Registrar.

I hereby certify that I have received notice of the organization of Bluefield Parish, Mercer Co., W. Va., one month before the meeting of this Council of the Diocese of W. Va., May 20th, 1903.

And I herein express my approval of the formation of this new Parish. May 21st, 1903. St. Matthew's Church, Wheeling, W. Va.

GEO. W. PETERKIN,

Bishop of West Virginia.

The Committee on New Parishes, to which has been referred an application from the Mission at Bluefield, Mercer Co., W. Va., to be received into union with the Council of this Diocese, as a Parish, to be known as "Bluefield Parish," respectfully reports that it has carefully considered said application and finds that the papers are all in due form and that the requirements of the Canon have been fully met.

Your Committee, therefore, reports the following resolution:

Resolved. That "Bluefield Parish" is hereby received into union with the Council of this Diocese.

S. SCOLLAY MOORE, Chairman.

The Rev. G. W. Easter submitted this report on Religious and Theological Education:

The Committee on Religious and Theological Education beg leave to report that it has received from the Treasurer of the Diocese and transmitted to the Treasurer of the Education Society of Va., the sum of $200. The total income of the fund for Religious and Theo. Education for the past fiscal year, according to the Treasurer's report, was $206.33, which added to the balance on hand June 1, 1902, made $348.03 available for its purposes, and after deducting the $200 above reported as paid to the Treasurer of the Education Society of Va., there is left in the hands of the Treasurer of the Diocese $148.03. It appears from the Treasurer's report that of 80 odd parishes, missions and preaching points in the Diocese mentioned in the Treasurer's report, only 22 made the collection required by the Canon for this fund. The committee respectfully call the attention of the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese to this Canon and urge compliance with its requirements.

REPORT FOR THE SUNDAY SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

Owing to the removal from the Diocese of Rev. W. H. Burkhardt, Chairman and "man of all work" of this Committee and with him all information necessary to produce an intelligent and full report of the work of this Committee, I, the remaining and ignorant clerical member of the same can only report the accompanying statement of its finances, transmitted to me by the former chairman, showing a balance of $8.00 to the credit of the Committee, which balance has also been sent me by the absent Chairman and is herewith reported and held subject to the Councils order.

Respectfully submitted,

C. C. PENICK.

The committee is now constituted as follows:

Rev. S. S. Moore, D. D.	Mr. L. E. Sands.
Rev. Jno. S. Gibson.	W. S. Laidley.
Rev. D. W. Howard.	Richd. Henderson.
Rev. J. S. Douglas.	J. Gassman.
Rev. A. J. Grinnan.	Simms Powell.

The Rev. John S. Douglas offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on Constitution and Canons be requested to report a substitute for the present blank form of certificate of the election of lay delegate to the annual council of the Diocese.

The Rev. G. A. Gibbons presented this report of the Standing Committee of the Diocese.

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORT.

(From June 8th, 1902, to May 22nd, 1903.)

July 8th, 1902. A Committee was appointed and reported resolutions, which were unanimously adopted, regarding the resignation of Mr. B. C. Washington as a member of your Standing Committee.

The Committee approved a bill for $46.06 expenses incurred by gentlemen sent to Moundsville by the Bishop, on special and important business, and recommended by the Bishop to be paid.

Consent was given to the Consecration of the Rev. Charles Taylor Olmsted, S. T. D., as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Central New York.

For good and sufficient reasons the Committee adopted a resolution to the effect that all regular meetings of the Committee should be held first Tuesday of every other month beginning with September, at 10 o'clock A. M., in Martinsburg, as the most central place.

September 17th, 1902. Mr. T. Getz Hill was recommended to the Bishop as a candidate for Holy Orders.

November 3rd, 1902. The Committee having been called by the Bishop to consult about a paper he had prepared concerning the Rev. B. M. Spurr, the Committee unanimously concurred in the contents of said paper. At the same meeting the Standing Committee gave consent to the Consecration of the Rev. C. M. Beckwith, D. D., to be Bishop of the Diocese of Alabama. Mr. Percy N. McDonald was recommended to the Bishop as a Candidate for Holy Orders.

March 3rd, 1903. The Standing Committee of the Diocese of West Virginia, duly convened in the city of Martinsburg, this third day of March, 1903, records and spreads upon its minutes with unfeigned sorrow the death of its faithful and efficient secretary, David Howell, which occurred at his home in Charles Town, Jan. 31, 1903.

Although Mr. Howell had been on this committee less than one year, he had endeared himself to every member by his ready and accurate performance of the duties devolving upon him as secretary of the same.

His voice and counsel will be greatly missed in our meetings and the influence he exerted for good will be felt and appreciated for years to come.

To his bereaved family this committee extends heartfelt sympathy and a copy of this record.

Consent was given to the Consecration of the Rev. Sheldon Munson Griswold, D. D., to be Bishop of the Missionary District of Salina.

Mr. Cretus Atwell Dowell, a candidate for Holy Orders, was recommended to the Bishop to be ordained Deacon.

Judge Frank Beckwith was elected unanimously to fill the vacancy in the Committee caused by the lamented death of Mr. Howell, and the Judge was then elected Secretary of the Committee.

May 5th, 1903. The Rev. Thomas C. Darst (Deacon) was recommended to the Bishop for Ordination to the Priesthood.

For good and sufficient reasons, and by unanimous vote of the Committee, it was recommended that the time of Candidacy of Mr. Francis Van R. Moore be shortened three months, and Mr. Moore was then recommended to the Bishop to be ordained Deacon.

G. A. GIBBONS, President.

JOHN S. DOUGLAS.

J. GASSMAN.

The Rev. John S. Gibson, for the committee appointed last year (see page 21, Journal, 1902), to consider proposed alterations in the Constitution of the Church, reported the committee could find no feature in the proposed alterations, injurious or objectionable.

The Rev. Dr. Roller nominated the Rev. S. S. Moore, D. D., and Mr. H. W. Potts as delegates to the next Missionary Council, and they were elected.

The Rev. J. S. Alfriend and Judge Frank Beckwith were elected alternates.

RICHARD HENDERSON.

Mr. Geo. R. Wendling offered this resolution, which was adopted:

This Council thanks the Trustees of the Permanent Fund for the fidelity and integrity with which they have discharged their duty and request them to make such corrections in their report as they may wish to make, and bring their reports down to June 1, 1903, and place it in the hands of the Secretary for publication in the Journal.

On motion the Council adjourned.

The Diocesan Missionary Committee submitted this report, which was received and referred to the Committee on the State of the Church:

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE DIOCESAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Your Committee submits this annual report of its work and begs leave again, as often before, to press its importance upon the attention of members of the Council and through them upon the Diocese at large.

We have had upon the list of our beneficiaries during the past year 27 names of missionaries. These men have ministered to many different points, which would count up nearly 100 in all. Their faithful ministrations have been in this year, as in all her history, one of the main sources of the Church's life and vigor in this Diocese. Four of them have now left the Diocese for other fields of usefulness and their places are only partially supplied. There has been paid to them during the year the sum of $3,050.01 to which sundry items of expense, amounting to $105, must be added, making a total of $3,155.01 expended. The report of the Treasurer shows these expenditures in detail and it is unnecessary to recapitulate them here.

Receipts for the year have been $3,330, leaving a balance in the hands of the Treasurer upon the year's transactions of $175. This with the balance in hand at the beginning of the year, makes up now the sum of $1,878.18 in the treasury, an apparently large balance, but needed at this time to enable your Committee to meet the stipends due on July 1st, for the income of the Society between this time and that will probably be small.

It is cause for congratulation that at a time, when special efforts were being made to enlarge our Permanent Fund, the aggregate contributions for this work for the year should have actually increased, as compared with last year. But a careful inspection of the Treasurer's report discloses the fact that this increase is not due to larger gifts through the ordinary parochial channels, in which there has been some diminution, and that it is due to the special efforts of the women of the Diocese, who have added nearly $375 to the contributions. But for their aid, our expenses would have exceeded our receipts. While the margin continues so small, your Committee does not feel justified in increasing missionary stipends, which are in many cases pitifully small. In some instances these have been supplemented by gifts from the Bishop's special fund to an amount aggregating as we are informed $447.50. Properly this would be a charge against the funds of this Society, and it may be said to represent, in part at least, the needed addition to our present receipts to enable us to do the work already undertaken in the manner in which it is now being done. But there are open doors of opportunity all about us for larger and more efficient work. Will the Church in a spirit of enlarged liberality, growing with the passing years, place in our hands the means to enable us to enter some of these?

The Rev. G. A. Gibbons moved to recommit to the committee.
 Pending the discussion, the Council adjourned.

2.30 P. M.

The Council was called to order by the Bishop.

Dr. G. A. Aschman moved, as a substitute for Mr. Gibbons' motion, that the report of the Committee on Parochial Reports, be adopted, with the proviso that the Secretary be authorized to make such correction of statistics as are necessary to perfect the report and publish them in the Appendix. This motion was lost.

The motion of the Rev. G. A. Gibbons to recommit was then put to the vote and lost.

Mr. B. M. Ambler moved that the report of the committee be received and the committee discharged. Carried.

Mr. George R. Wendling offered the following resolution, which was adopted by an unanimous rising vote:

The Council, with gratitude and thanksgiving, congratulates the Diocese and our Bishop upon his recovery from his recent illness. We desire, however, in our solicitude, to convey to our beloved Bishop the assurance that the Council would be glad to see him take such a temporary rest from his official cares and duties as will enable him to tully regain his physical strength and thereby prolong a life so precious to us all. The Clergy and the Laity pledge themselves to the diligent performance of any additional duties which may be laid upon them by reason of any vacation which the Bishop may desire to take.

The Rev. D. W. Howard presented from Mrs. Reyman an invitation to the Council to visit Altenheim to-morrow afternoon. The invitation was accepted with thanks.

The Rev. J. S. Alfriend, for the Committee on Episcopal and Permanent Fund, presented the following report:

The Committee on Episcopal and Permanent Fund beg leave to report that they have examined the report of the Trustees submitted to this Council, and find the amount to the credit of this fund on May 18, 1903, to be $26,610.51, of which $15,700 is well and safely invested in interest bearing securities, $2,712.00 is in pleges, notes and certificates, and $8,198.51 in cash; all of which is deposited with "The Central Banking and Security Company" of Parkersburg, the authorized Treasurer of said fund.

Your Committee finds that according to the statement of Mr. Gordon, the former Treasurer of this fund, the total amount thereof on June 1, 1901, was $21,876.33 and that total contributions since received, in money, notes and pledges, including this Ascension Day offering, is $14,402.26, making a grand total at this date, May 22, 1903, of $36,278.59. Of the sum of $14,402.26, above given as the amount contributed since June 1, 1901, $13,150.77 was laid on the plate at the offering taken in this church on last evening, in money and pledges; it is proper to state, however, that a portion of this had been previously reported to the Trustees, and is included in their statement of May 18, 1903, and the figures here given are simply to show the result of the effort made to increase this fund since the action taken at Charleston two years ago, with that end in view, and to show the amount given throughout the Diocese, and brought here as a thank-offering on this occasion of the 25th anniversary of the consecration of our beloved Bishop. It should be understood, therefore, that these figures are subject to such revision as the facts may require.

We believe that this fund has been handled with intelligent care and safeguarded by proper business methods. We further think that the Trustees deserve the thanks and appreciation of this Council.

In consideration of the pressing demands of the work in the parishes and diocese and the church at large, we think, that the sum total of the offering as it now stands, affords reason and hope for encouragement.

We further recommend that steps be taken at once for continued prosecution of the Permanent Fund.

Your Committee begs to report regarding the Episcopal and Contingent Fund, that the report of Mr. R. M. Browne, Trustee, which has been presented to this Council, shows the amount assessed against the various parishes and mission stations to be $3,565.00 for the year ending May 31, 1903, and the total amount paid in on said assessments to be $2,829.58, leaving a deficit of $735.22.

The concise and intelligent report of Mr. Brown is commended to each member of the Council as worthy of their careful perusal.

Owing the effort being made in behalf of the Permanent Fund, and the large amount being raised therefor, we fear the brethren may relax their efforts on behalf of this Contingent Fund; the Committee therefore urges renewed and continued effort to meet their assessments in full.

Respectfully submitted,

C. C. PEARSON, Ch.,
JNO. S. ALFRIEND,
GEO. A. BAXTER,
SIMMS POWELL.

The Rev. Dr. Moore presented the report of the Assessment Committee.

On motion it was recommitted to the committee.

The committee to which was referred all matters relating to the change of name of the Church, made the following report:

The Committee to whom was referred that part of the Bishop's address which treats of the proposal to change the name of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, beg to report as follows:

We find the word Protestant was accepted as the natural designation of our Church in the first General Convention of our Church in Philadelphia in September, 1785. It is asserted that those who organized our Church as a part of the one great Church of Christ made a mistake and gave it a name that sacrifices our position.

It is perfectly clear that our Church claims Christ through His Apostles as her founder. That she asserts that her ministry has come from the Apostles themselves.

Those who would change the name of the Church declare that the word Protestant in the title puts it in the category of those who ignore or misinterpret Church history. If this be true, it is fatal objection to a name, for it means we are calling ourselves something we are not—which is not true.

The principal objection made to the name as it stands lies in the word Protestant—this is declared to be a mere negative—equivalent to Anti-Roman Catholic, and its use is said to cut us off from our Catholic heritage. Nothing could be farther from the truth. True, the word in common use has been abused, but the word Catholic has been still more abused. As the word Protestant was first used it included a protest against the abuses and false teaching of the Church of Rome and an appeal to the highest of our authorities—a General Council. Now that appeal to true Catholic authority is the very ground on which the Church of England planted herself as a Catholic Church. The very ground upon which we as her daughter stand. So considered it is more than a mere negative, since it includes a positive assertion of loyal Catholicity. The essence of the protest and the appeal remain unchanged. The word Protestant is one of which we should be proud. It does not stand for a mere negative. It stands for a positive principle, to surrender which would be to surrender our claim to a true Catholicity. It stands for freedom from ecclesiastical control of opinion and for the right of private judgment.

If the word Protestant is retained Episcopal must be retained with it, as indicating one form of Church government.

If we should change our name to what should we change it? The four names most prominently urged are the Episcopal Church, The Church in the United States, The Catholic Church in the United States, and the American Catholic Church. None of these is free from grave objections. The first, the Episcopal, is bad because it abandons our claim to true Catholicity. The second, the Church in the United States, is an intolerable assumption, because it unchurches all other Christians, Protestants and Roman Catholics alike; the third, the Catholic Church in the United States, and the fourth, the American Catholic Church, are objectionable because they introduce a word that has been even more abused than Protestant, and in the opinion of large numbers of our own communicants would be understood as a step toward union with Rome and would put us a step further from the other Protestant Churches to whom we are much nearer than we are to Rome, and the American Catholic to call our national communion by that name, is to assert that she is American, and at the same time universal, which is a contradiction in terms. The very fact that those who want a change cannot agree among themselves on any one name, is a strong argument against making any change. Let them agree upon a name then it would be time to urge the adoption of that name.

What would be gained by such a change of name?

One thing certainly would, and it is a thing to be avoided, namely: vast litigation. The titles to Church property all over the country would certainly be disputed in the courts. This would not be the case if it were a unanimous consent, but when so much diversity of opinion exists, when so much party strife would be engendered, this result would certainly follow.

It is asserted that large numbers of people who are outside of our Church—foreigners, would flock into it. They forget that the position of our Church would be exactly the same after a change of name as it is now. If we are not actually a part of the Holy Catholic Church in which we profess our belief whenever we say the creed, we shall not become so by merely changing our name. If we have anything in common with Protestantism we shall not lose it by dropping the word Protestant from the name of the Church.

The Church of Christ in the world today has a tremendous work before her. The world in large part, is still to be brought to Christ. The home and family need protection more than they have for hundreds of years. With all that to change now would be to waste our time and energy sowing seed of discord and discussion over a mere question of names.

The committee recommends the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That in the opinion of the Diocese of West Virginia any change of name of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America at this time would be inexpedient.

Signed.

G. A. GIBBONS,
GEO. W. EASTER,
SIMMS POWELL,
G. A. ASCHMAN.

On motion of the Rev. J. S. Gibson, the following Diocesan Missionary Committee was elected:

The Bishop (ex-officio), President.

The Bishop, Coadjutor.

Rev. J. Brittingham.

Rev. J. F. Woods.

Rev. S. S. Moore, D. D.

Mr. B. M. Ambler.

Mr. Simms Powell.

Mr. L. E. Sands, Treas.

Mr. B. M. Ambler offered the following, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the members of the Council record grateful acknowledgments, to the railroad and transportation lines for favors granted; to the press for aid in promoting the success in this session, and to the citizens generally of this community, who have manifested a kindly interest in our proceedings, and have contributed to the pleasure of our stay among them.

Resolved II, That we would gladly extend thanks personally and individually to those of our own household. We appreciate all that they have done for us, as we have been continuously impressed with the thoughtfulness and ungrudging care bestowed upon the arrangements for our comfort and entertainment. We have enjoyed the privilege of closer social contact, even more than bounteous hospitalities lavished on every hand. We have not failed to note that this Twenty-fifth Anniversary of our good Bishop's Consecration, has been made the occasion of other reunions, bringing into view the beautiful relations and the attractive forces, which elevate and sweeten life, and of which St. Matthews is now a center; and we are moved to express a feeling somewhat akin to family pride, when we look about this chief city of our State, and find how high and honorable a part our own brethren take in the noble charities and good works, that mark and largely measure the position of a people in the scale of truest worth and righteousness.

The Rev. John S. Gibson, from the Committee on the State of the Church, submitted this report:

The Committee on the State of the Church respectfully reports:

Your committee has for its purposes the ascertaining of the progress of the Church in the several directions of the spiritual, moral and material. It is sometimes difficult to measure these things, as the short period of twelve months is under review, but we meet this year under circumstances most auspicious for the work of such committee, and because at this time there is being celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of the consecration of the first Bishop of West Virginia, we are enabled to take a wider view in order to determine the state of the Church.

The Diocese began her independent life in 1877 as "a little one among the thousands of Judah," there being to greet and work with the Bishop consecrated in 1878 but 14 clergy and some 1,277 communicants. In the twenty-five years over which we look these have grown in number until to-day there are, canonically connected with the Diocese, 46 clergy, and some 4,600 communicants, and the increase in value of Church property has been some $650,000.

Beginning with no endowment funds, except that the mother Diocese, Virginia, gave $5,000 in lieu of all claims for sharing the common property, except the estates and endowments of the Theological Seminary and Episcopal High School at Alexandria, we have now vested funds aggregating $66,000, and three institutions working for the relief and uplifting of our fellows. The 24 Churches and Chapels of the beginning have grown to number 81 and there are 36 rectories instead of the 11 of twenty-five years ago. Despite the fact of an imperfectly reported work the Parochial Reports Committee made yesterday shows that the tendency is onward. The total money raised in the last conciliar year being more than ever before, over $112,000, and, as the Bishop said in his address, the contributions to every fund being larger than ever before. So the work which began to grow as it was undertaken continues to expand, and there is manifest the good hand of our God upon us.

The Diocese in this advance has been fortunate in having the leadership of a Bishop whose heart has loved her and whose energies of thought and action have been bent for her upbuilding and your committee take this occasion to express, on behalf of the Church, to the Bishop of the Diocese its gratitude for the twenty-five years of faithful and loving service he has so freely rendered, and to pray God, Our Father, for a continuance of his guidance and blessing.

JNO. S. GIBSON,
GEO. A. GIBBONS,
GEO. R. WENDLING,
G. A. ASCHMAN.

The Diocesan Committee on Foreign and Domestic Missions was elected as follows:

Rev. D. W. Howard.
Rev. G. A. Gibbons.
Rev. J. S. Gibson.

Gen. W. P. Craighill.
Mr. C. C. Coe.

Rev. G. W. Easter.

Mr. W. G. Hubbard.

Rev. J. Howard Gibbons.

The Rev. J. S. Douglas cordially invited the Council to meet in Trinity Church, Martinsburg, next year, which invitation was accepted by the Council.

The Rev. Dr. Moore offered this resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Committee on Constitution and Canons be instructed to recodify and suggest alterations and improvements in the Constitution and Canons of this Diocese and to make report to the next session of this Council.

Mr. B. M. Ambler offered this resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, That a memorial volume of 3,000 copies be prepared, embodying the historical sermon and such other matter relating to the twenty-fifth anniversary, as may be deemed advisable by a committee of three to be appointed by the Bishop.

The Bishop appointed this Committee: The Rev. D. W. Howard, Dr. G. A. Aschman, J. C. Brady.

The Rev. J. Brittingham moved to rescind the order, passed on Thursday, to publish 3,000 copies of the historical sermon in pamphlet form; carried.

Six hundred copies of the Journal were ordered printed.

The Committee on Unfinished Business reported nothing further claiming attention of the Council.

On motion, after reading the minutes, and suitable devotions, the Council adjourned sine die.

HISTORICAL SERMON.

FOR THE
TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY
OF
BISHOP PETERKIN'S CONSECRATION.

St. Matthew's Church, Wheeling, W. Va.,

Ascension Day, 1903.

PREACHED BY
REV. JNO. S. GIBSON,
Rector of Trinity Church, Huntington,
MAY 21st, 1903.

HISTORICAL SERMON.

St. Mark, 16:15: 19-20.

"And He said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to the whole creation. So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken unto them, was received up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God. And they went forth, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them." (Rev. Ver.)

In the great forty days between the "Mighty Resurrection" and "glorious Ascension" our Lord opened the understandings of His apostles concerning the nature and methods of His Kingdom of truth, and on the mountain in Galilee gave them the great commission: "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to the whole creation," thus announcing "in the simplest and least ostentatious way the most original, the broadest, the sublimest enterprise that ever human beings have been called upon to accomplish." Even, that men of every clime, condition and generation should come to the knowledge of God their Father as revealed through the incarnate Son in His office of prophet, priest and king, and witnessed to by the Spirit sent forth in all hearts crying Abba, Father, by a line of human witnesses beginning with those who had "seen and handled the Words of Life," "beheld His glory as of the only begotten of the Father" from the day when at Jordan there came the voice from heaven saying "This is my beloved son," until that day, when from Olivet, He went up from them into heaven to take His power and reign.

When these witnesses received the inward power of the Holy Ghost from the gift-giving conqueror Christ, their proclamation began, and from that hour to this the going forth and the preaching have never ceased. From this hour to that extends a wondrous line of apostles, who have blessed the generations with light and love. Their witness has been heard and a great flock has been gathered throughout the world, and as it has been gathered it has been shepherded. Like the Master, the true Shepherd, these His under-shepherds have given their lives for the sheep. The dominant thought of their serving has been "to keep those whom thou has given me that none be lost," either by the drawing away from faith by doctrines erroneous, strange, and contrary to God's word, or by ungodliness or worldly lusts. Their hearts and hands have been sanctified to show themselves gentle and merciful for Christ's sake to poor and needy people, and to all strangers destitute of help."

This line of living witnesses stretching back to the very day on which our Lord ascended up on high came at length to have its members serving in the new found Western land, and after many days our own flock of Christ upon the heights of the mountains and in the deeps of the valleys of West Virginia was, by the providence of God, given into the hands of one of them for shepherding. It was a blessed day, and we turn back to it today as a man in his full career turns back to the hour when, though self-distrusting, he started forth, with his parents' blessing, to do a man's work in the world. Into these walls there came on that Ascension Day, 1878, with look of profoundest reverence and most lofty purpose, a company of Bishops with commission to consecrate another into this line of living witnesses. They were the Diocesans, or their assistants, of each Diocese then touching the territory of West Virginia, excepting Maryland. There was the silver-haired Bishop Bebell, of Ohio, true in faith and pure in life; the Bishop of Pittsburg, Jno. Barrett Kerfoot, who from his scholastic work and spirit came to the arduous and lack-of-ease work of a Bishop in the Church of God; the sham-hating, truth-loving, impetuous-for-his-ideas-of-truth, Francis M. Whittle, of Virginia; the young Bishop of the young Diocese of Southern Ohio, Thomas A. Jaggar, a striking figure and a scholarly Bishop, who all too soon succumbed to the inevitable strain; and then the Assistant Bishop of Kentucky, whose praise is in the Churches, and whose gracious presence here today forbids aught else to be voiced save our gratitude that he was one of those, perhaps the chiefest, who, under God, led us to the choice of him whom we would this day honor.

Standing before these Bishops in the Church of God was a tall lytle young presbyter of 37 years. He had learned in a pious rectory the "way of life," and "the beauty of holiness;" he had grown, as a participant in the four years' struggle of a valiant and noble people to maintain their ideas of truth and justice, into the qualities which go to the making of a soldier "without fear' and without reproach;" he had learned in his home and in his alma mater, the Virginia Seminary, that evangelical interpretation of the gospel, which while it holds the Catholic faith and order entire, yet refuses to shadow the glory and power of Jesus Christ, the one mediator between God and man, by any undue exaltation or elaboration of ceremonial or ministry.

The solemn vows are taken ex animo (from the soul); the commission given, as upon the head of the kneeling Bishop elect there press the hands of his consecrators, and the voice of the consecrator says, "Receive the Holy Ghost for the office and work of a Bishop in the Church of God, now committed unto thee by the imposition of our hands; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, Amen.

The solemn admonition sounds in these walls; enters into his soul: "Be to the flock of Christ a Shepherd, not a wolf; feed them, devour them not. Hold up the weak, heal the sick, bind up the broken, bring again the outcasts, seek the lost. Be so merciful, that you be not too remiss; so minister discipline, that you forget not mercy; that when the Chief Shepherd shall appear, you may receive the never-fading Crown of Glory."

It is done. The Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States has received thus, the one hundred and twentieth in the line of living witnesses, and the Church in West Virginia the completion of her organization in the giving of jurisdiction and authority to the Rt. Rev. George William Peterkin, Doctor in Divinity, the first Bishop of West Virginia. And the West Virginia Church was satisfied and expectant as he began from that hour to lead, as her apostle, in the development of her life.

Twenty-five years have passed and the representatives of the West Virginia Church are again assembled on Ascension Day within the walls of St. Matthew's Church, and the central figure in the assemblage is the First Bishop of West Virginia.

Of those present on the day of consecration in 1878, officially or otherwise, but few are remaining on earth. All the consecrators excepting the Bishops of Kentucky and Southern Ohio have fallen asleep—resting well after years of manly toil.

Our Nestors, Rev. Jno. F. Woods and Rev. George A. Gibbons are the two presbyters remaining of the number who gave their votes for him and their welcome to him—the others are either in other fields, or gone to rest in Paradise. Of the laity then attending likewise the number has become few.

But the church then satisfied and expectant comes today in fullness of power and gladness of heart to worship God and do honor to His servant.

She looks upon him who was then the novice-bishop and sees that he wears the aspect of a veteran; she rejoices to have had the cares and toils of his manly life hers for all these years; still satisfied and yet expectant, she assures him of her deep, true love, for his person and his office, and bids him lead on, as the directing Lord shall guide, and prays God's good providence that it may be many years before the lengthening shadows merge into the glowing light for him.

A general in the midst of conflict has his thoughts elsewhere than upon himself. How goes the battle? How fare the men? Is the cause safe? A Bishop in the Church of God on such a day as this, apart from the necessary introspection which may be short, sets his thought upon the flock committed to his charge, and the other sheep not of this fold whom he must bring, and so the West Virginia Church having taken occasion of this anniversary to congratulate herself upon his years of loving service rendered her, and to assure him of her appreciation and love must turn with some sense of his thought-direction to consider the Church, the Kingdom, during these years. How has gone the struggle to up-build—to lead—to increase—to establish the house of God in the tops of the mountains and to give the valleys light?

The history of the Church in West Virginia territory runs back to the Colonial period, although the Church in the Colonies of Virginia and contiguous Maryland, had reached beyond the respectable age of a hundred years before Governor Spotswood and the Knights of the Golden Horse-Shoe had in 1716 made their daring journey of exploration beyond the Blue Ridge and touched, perhaps, the Valley of the Shenandoah. Soon after this the Valley began to be settled from Tidewater Virginia and from immigration from Pennsylvania. There were churches established near the present site of Charles Town; in what is now Shepherdstown; at Mill Creek; and congregations gathered in Martinsburg and in Hampshire County. The history is meagre and the traditions scant and uncertain. Who built St. George's in the fields near Charles Town? The walls of vine covered stone and the beauty of site attest the taste and spirit of the worshippers. It was on the route of the army of Gen. Braddock, and within its walls no doubt many sons of the Church with him and Col. Geo. Washington heard the word. It was erected some where between 1727-1760, presumably a little after 1740, but the names of builders, worshippers and ministers are all forgotten.

The Welshman, Morgan of Morgan, who about 1740 conducted services and was instrumental in building the Church at what is now Bunker Hill is an example of faith and works to the laymen now comprising the body of the Church. Thurston at Shepherdstown in 1768, Sturges at Martinsburg in 1771, Ogilvie, Manning and Kenner ordained in England 1771-72 for service in Hampshire, the oldest County, 1754, in the State, are the names of ministers whose memory has perished from among the sons of men. They interest us much as the teachers on the outposts of the Western line then reached by the Episcopal Church in Virginia, but their names recall no memories and suggest no deeds save those of patient witnessing for God and His Christ to the first settlers in West Virginia.

In the army of Lord Dunmore threading its way through the wilderness of New River and the Great Kanawha, and establishing by the victory at Point Pleasant over the Indian allied nations the Ohio as the boundary between barbarism and civilization, there were no doubt many sons of the Church, and its training in the path of duty and Gods service no doubt inspired many a heart to deeds of heroism on that hard fought day.

Then came the struggle for American liberty extending over eight years before the end was gained and America took her place among the nations. At its close the Church, even where it had been strong, found its altars deserted and its people almost shepherdless. The half-hearted among her people when there came contumely and reproach deserted to the ranks of growing sectarianism, and even her own children were consenting to the shameless despoliation of her rightful property, the saving of which by the adjudication of the courts in her favor was prevented by the death of Virginia's great jurist, Edmund Pendleton. With the strong lowland Church suffered the just-born Missions in the adjacent uplands, and though their light never went out it flickered almost to dying. The first step of progress noted after the Revolution is the building at Martinsburg by Philip Pendleton and others of its first Church. And Hedgesville, where Wm. Pendleton and Raleigh Colston were pillars, seems to have been the Western outpost moving along the Potomac from tide water. Beyond lay the mysterious mountains. But the battles of Point Pleasant and the Revolution had made possible the journeying and settlement of immigrants, and New Kentucky lay just beyond the Virginia border, attracting by its romance and the story of its wealth; so it was not long before Western Virginia became a known land. The Valley of the Kanawha began to fill, and it was as early as 1797 that the Hudsons came to Coalsmouth with the love of the Church in their hearts. Then come movements from up the Ohio down its fertile valleys, and among the first to make his home in what is now Brooke County was Rev. Joseph Doddridge, M. D.; the pioneer in the region of Wheeling and the "Pan Handle;" untiring, vigilant, able, alone, almost unremunerated; with glorious opportunity for the Church of their fathers among many of the immigrants, yet when no helpers came giving his sad note of hope deferred.

Another stream of influence and direction of progress was due to the missionary spirit shown by the Clerical Association of the Valley, whose members assembled every three months for prayer, consultation and missionary contributing for the support of missionaries to the Western part of Virginia. It sent forth into the region beyond the Alleghanies Revs. Charles Page and Wm. Lee, whose plantings have today grown into the Churches at Clarksburg, Morgantown, Parkersburg, Point Pleasant and Charleston. As population increased it was seen that the harvest was plenteous, but the laborers were few, and so very many sons of the Church were soon lost to her. And when work was begun its progress was slow. Some thought because of the distance of the Bishops and the infrequency of their presence, and began to stir for an organization more after the primitive model of smaller sections for supervision. Dr. Doddridge moved for it, including in his proposed new jurisdiction parts of Western Virginia, Pennsylvania and Eastern Ohio. Rev. Benjamin Allen in the Eastern Pan Handle did the same thing, being the first, so it is said, to move for a division of the Diocese in 1815. A truer cause may be that given by the Rev. C. W. Andrews, D. D., as to the slow growth of the Church at Shepherdstown; the lack of a settled ministry, due to the unwillingness of the people to sustain it; it being, he says, considered that a subscription of $10 per annum, and that by people of large means, was a bountiful giving to sustain the gospel. But whether it was for these or other causes it is a fact that after the pioneers had blazed the way the Church did not grow, either in numbers or influence, as her history and traditions and her claims upon many of the immigrants as being her own sons and daughters entitled her to, or as it was the hope of her devout leaders that she would. From 1783 to 1877, a period of 94 years, she increased from some half dozen points to have some twenty-four organizations and about twenty other points where services, more or less frequent, were held. Yet she had had the Episcopal supervision, and personal presence and service of every one of the great Bishops of Virginia, excepting Bishop Madison, than whom the Church has never had a more manly or godly and well-learned and efficient line of successors to those first commissioned to preach everywhere.

As we rehearse the names of the pastors of this little flock upon the hills and in the pleasant Valleys of what is now the "Mountain State," it will be realized that the Church was served by a goodly company of priests, and that any slowness to progress must be accounted for in some other way than to lay it to the charge either of godlessness or inefficiency in the ministry; and perhaps if war and non-support had not forced a practical itineracy upon the West Virginia Church prior to 1877, and it could have had a permanent ministry exercising both the gifts of preaching and shepherding, the progress might have been much greater, despite the facts of the Church being planted in new places just out of the woods, as it were, and among a population either largely alien or else alienated from the Church. In the Eastern section there ministered such men as Benj. Allen, preacher, missionary, author, poet, tractarian (not in technical or theologian parlance) the leader of the evangelical revival after 1812. C. W. Andrews, D. D., doughty champion of the Church's system, as evangelically applied, almost the assistant Bishop of Virginia; C. E. Ambler, W. D. Hanson, the uncle of our own Bishop; Theodore Carson, Isaac Gibson, James Chisholm, the faithful pastor who died not when pestilence entered his flock, and so perished to live ever in the heart of the Virginia Church. D. F. Sprigg, D. D., the pungent paragraphist who for many years taught all the Church wholesome things through his paper the Southern Churchman, R. T. Davis, B. B. Smith, 1st Bishop of Ky, and at 90 years of age exercising the office of Presiding Bishop. Dudley Tyng, Julius Grammar, Wm. H. Meade, almost Bishop of W. Va.; James Grammar, D. D., Alexander Jones, Wm. Thos. Leavell, of true faith and staunch devotion, living to project his influence upon the spiritual life of the Diocese of West Virginia, which came to being largely because of his earnest labors in that behalf. These and others of like spirit.

In the Northwestern section: Doddridge the planter, the seer,

John Armstrong at Wheeling, during whose ministry Bishop White confirmed a class in Wheeling; Wm. Armstrong, Edmund T. Perkins, D. D., devoted, earnest, beloved; Addison, in troublous times of civil strife; Geo. C. Currie, the eloquent Scot; James A. Latane, godly, but led into erroneous following of Geo. David Cummins in 1873; J. G. Armstrong; Jno. F. Woods, here today as one of us; David H. Greer, D. D., today a dominant spirit in the American Church; H. E. Hayden, Joshua Cowpland, R. A. Castleman, Edmund Christian, James J. Page, Saml. D. Tomkins, W. D. Hyland, Rich. T. Brown, Thomas Smith, Francis Nash, and others like these.

In the Kanawha Valley: James Craik, D. D., founder of Christ Church, Louisville, President of House of Deputies for years; Francis M. Whittle, D. D., Bishop of Virginia; F. D. Goodwin, R. A. Cobbs, who became Secretary of the Diocese of West Virginia; Thos. Hugo Lacy, E. V. Jones, C. R. Page, C. H. Page, and others. Truly Virginia could be proud of the men she sent into her Western section, if she did in Convention again and again deplore that she sent too few, and that her children in that section were too often left as sheep without shepherd.

At length 137 years after the beginning of her life in Western Virginia and fourteen years after the territory in Western Virginia had become the Commonwealth of West Virginia the Church in West Virginia was allowed, by the conservatism of the Councils and Bishops of Virginia, and against the timidity and actual protest of some of its clergy and people, to become of age and to begin its independent life. It was in 1877 that the dream of Doddridge and of Allen from 1800 to 1816, became the vision of Wm. Thos. Leavell; that the strivings of the clergy and laity of Western Virginia as they met to obtain concerted action in 1851, 1865, 1872-3, 1875, 1876 became the deed accomplished. For 62 years the workers in this scattered field sought in vain to obtain the right to have their work done at closer range, and to have it receive the direction of a Bishop to whom its importance and its promise should give inspiration and power to apply to it the full strength of a manhood consecrated to the work of a Bishop in the Church of God. The organization was fully completed when on Ascension Day, 1878, its first Bishop was consecrated. Then began another stage in the life of the Church in West Virginia, and promise was soon given that there would be a fulfillment of the hopes of those who had seen in independent organization a vast increment of vitality and strength. There was first the necessary forming of acquaintances with the field, its needs and its promise, and this was done by the personal contact of the new Bishop with every section. Then came under his leadership, and with the co-operation of a faithful clergy and laity, a gradual development of the work, and as there was preaching everywhere there was evidence of the Lord working with them. The progress which has been made in the twenty-five years seems to your preacher to have had as its basis certain well-defined principles.

First: That a Bishop's office, whatever else canonical regulation may lay upon him, is to be that of Chief Missionary, and that he is to find satisfaction in his work, not as a ruler over the Church, but as an Apostle of it, planting with his labor, nourishing with his prayers. It was under this conception, as applied in practice, that the newly organized Church began at once to revive its established work, and to spread into central West Virginia and along the Kanawha, New and other rivers.

Second: That the Protestant Episcopal Church is not an alien in this Commonwealth seeking domicile and fruitage, but that this is her heritage, and that she has message to and responsibility for all the people, and must do them good. If they dwell amid the manifold temptations of urban life, that she must there show her utmost skill; if among the fields and woods of cultivated sections, that she must witness for the God who gave their heritage; if among the narrow valleys and in dark mines, that she must speak of peace, purity, love and mercy; if upon the mountain tops, that she must exalt their hearts to Him who reigns above them.

Third: That the Church most needed by the people of West Virginia to conserve spiritual life, preserve morality, and comfort souls and bodies of men is the Protestant Episcopal Church. Not some modern adaptation of this Church to the modes of thought and administration of Modern Romanism, but the Church of Andrews of England and Andrews of Virginia. The Protestant Episcopal Church, with its noble liturgy whose rubrics are laws: with its ministers, who are neither mumblers of superstition in a language unknown, nor priests offering sacrifice, but men of God, taught of God, standing to teach and lead and encourage their brethren. The Episcopal Church, in its simplicity and its beauty, old yet instinct with manly vigor; the home of the lowly and humble in heart, whether those hearts beat beneath velvet or fustian. The Church Primitive, Protestant, Catholic. The Church of Jesus Christ.

Fourth: That self-help is the great factor in developing strength, and that while the General Church has had responsibility for the planting or non-planting of the Church in West Virginia in the past, that it is now her own chief concern, and that the Church in West Virginia must bend her energies to be self-propagating; and that every candle lighted in the woods and mines must see that others catch light from it, until the beacon of the Divine burns on every hilltop.

Fifth: That the Bishop has special and near relation as head pastor to every other pastor of the flock: even the relation of perfectly frank friendship, brotherhood and sympathy. The Episcopate in West Virginia has never yet, and please God it never will, expressed its relation to the presbyterate and diaconate as regarding itself and the laity as the permanent elements in the Church life, and so careless and indifferent to the struggles of the co-workers, who are here regarded as the "backbone" of the work. There has therefore grown up between the clergy and Bishop of this Diocese a love and mutual confidence which may well be the envy of larger folds, and from this has flowed a worthier service and a hastening progress.

These principles, and others, as illustrated and applied by the Bishop have resulted in a great growth and strengthening of the Church in West Virginia. This growth may appear more clearly if there are given in comparative statistics the figures of the two periods, 1878, the date of the Consecration, and May, 1903, twenty-five years after. In 1878 14 clergy working in 24 parishes and missions and preaching at perhaps 20 other points. In 1903, 42 clergy officiating in 81 Churches and chapels and ministering at 100 other points. In '78 about 1300 communicants; in 1903, about 4600 communicants. In '78, 11 Rectories, in 1903, 36 Rectories. In '78 no institutions for education under Church influences, or for ministering to the broken, bruised, and fever stricken bodies of men. In 1903, a thoroughly equipped and constantly growing hospital, the Sheltering Arms, which beginning a little over a dozen years ago has done wonderful good to hundreds of men and women in the coal fields of the Kanawha and New River, and come to require between $5,000 and $6,000 to operate.

A Hall at the State University worth $25,000, intended, in the absence of ability to conduct an institution under Church auspices, to give some oversight to the youth attending upon the State University. This is really the private property of the Bishop. A hospital at Glendale, which, while at present private property, is supported largely by contributions of churchmen, and ministers in the Church's name to all sorts and conditions, and relieves many cases of distress without money compensation. A Bishop's house worth $20,000 as a home for the beloved Diocesan.

In 1878 no vested funds or endowments except $5,000 received in lieu of all claims from the mother diocese. In 1903, over $5,000 accumulated in the Disabled Clergy and Widow's and Orphan's Fund.

$23,000 endowment for the Sheltering Arms Hospital.

Over $35,000 for Permanent Fund for the support of the Episcopate.

In 1877, contributing to work of missions in the Diocese about $500 per annum. In 1903, paying an assessment of $3,000 for missions in West Virginia. In 1877, contributing some $800 to the Contingent Fund, and in 1903, paying an assessment for same of $3,500.

West Virginia was not a name in the Church's Kalendars in 1876, but in 1893 she had become a household word in Rio Grande do Sul, for her Bishop had come across the thousands of miles of sea to give her people shepherding.

West Virginia unknown in 1876 in 1901 had her name known throughout the Isle of the Sea, Porto Rico, as her Bishop did apostolic work there.

West Virginia needing evangelization, so much in 1876 sent forth to bring light into the Dragon's Stronghold, 'Ngankin, in 1902, one of the manly sons of one of her knightliest churchmen and so the West Virginia Church will soon be thankfully thought of by many of the redeemed sons of China.

West Virginia in 1876 not a name in America's great Church in twenty-four years was named among five dioceses leading in contributions.

This advance and upbuilding represents the giving of a life. It has not come by accident or easy unfolding; but, as the great material development of West Virginia is the result of the giving of brain and brawn by the toilers, so this has come by God's blessing upon the manly toll of a manly man and his helpers. As Virginia traces the resuscitation of her almost perished Church in the early part of the nineteenth century to her Wm. Meade, so West Virginia ascribes her progress during the first twenty-five years of the Episcopate of her first Bishop to the character of the Bishop himself. As has been recently and well said: "What had been officially reported in 1876 as impossible, he undertook in 1878 under discouragements that seemed appalling. He infused new life where activity had almost died out. His enthusiasm was felt in every organization or gathering within his jurisdiction. His personal manliness appealed to the admiration of widening circles." For twenty-five years now he has been Bishop, and the Church in West Virginia here assembled in solemn council must claim her right to give God thanks for his servant our Bishop; and to express to the Bishop her deep sense of gratitude for his faithful, wise, sympathetic, untiring shepherding of the flock.

For twenty years the Bishop bore alone the "care of all the churches" when in 1899, the Diocese, having realized the overtaking of his strength, through multiplication of work, gave him a coadjutor. There was chosen for that office—and wisely—a man from the ranks of our own clergy; one who familiar with the field, its promise and its difficulty, would not, as one looking on from without and despising the day of small things, cry "Nolo Episcopari," but would gladly become true yoke-fellows with such a worker in such a work. Wm. Loyall Gravatt was chosen and consecrated in 1899, a man of the same intense devotion to those truths of our religion called Protestant; of the same Catholic spirit; of the same fidelity to the Protestant Episcopal Church; of the same tenderness and sympathy; and side by side these two lead on under God to the realization of the vision of the preacher of yesterday.

Are there no clouds? you ask me. Yea, but the skies of West Virginia are very beautiful. Are there no difficulties? Yea, but our journeyings in the West Virginia hills have taught us that however deep and narrow the valley may be, there soon comes again the hill top and from it vision of beauty. Are there no failures and no slowness? Aye, both; but if the potter's kiln fails today, there comes tomorrow, and the Lord reigns.

This much of the past! Now we turn to the future, what of that? We hope, but prophesy not. We give ourselves and the Church of our love and His to the Lord's guidance. He gave the spark of life in the far off colonial day; He nourished it and fanned it into flame in the days of struggle, of weakness, of growing strength; He brought the Church to the day of her majority and "set her feet in a large room," and said: "Go ye, preach, baptize;" as the preachers went he worked with them and brought forth this that ye have this day seen and heard. Surely, then brethren we can labor on and at eventide sleep with our fathers with full confidence that the Lord Ascended will continue His guiding, and that as the West Virginia Church goes forth and preaches everywhere He will work with her with signs following. And so we commend this Church, bishops, priests, deacons and people all, to God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost.

Unto whom we ascribe:

THE REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE PERMANENT FUND OF THE DIOCESE OF WEST VIRGINIA,
FOR THE PERIOD ENDING MAY 18th, 1903.

The Council having ordered that the session for 1903 should be held at St. Matthew's Church, in Wheeling, on the Wednesday preceding Ascension Day, May 21, 1903, the present report is less complete than might well be wished on account of the delays in getting returns from the different parts of the Diocese.

The figures here given include only funds received up to and including the 18th day of May, 1903.

By order of Council of 1902, The Central Banking and Security Company, of Parkersburg, West Virginia, was named as Treasurer of the Permanent Fund, and therefore the accounts given below will include transactions had by the Trustees direct, as well as those occurring after the funds and securities were turned over to the Treasurer on July 15, 1902; and we here record our acknowledgements to the Treasurer and its officers for many courtesies and patient kindnesses.

Remarks—Deaths, removals and the lack of services for a year have brought this congregation to a very low ebb. I actually took charge in September, 1902, then in October came my vacation. During the winter months the services were necessarily suspended, because all but one of the communicants were absent. Twice when I have advertized service I have been advised not to come. It seems to me it would be better to put this congregation in charge of some one living on the railroad, who can give the people more attention with less inconvenience and expense. Every trip costs me now at least three days and $3.30, and in winter the road from here is almost impassable.

The church has sustained distressing loss of several of its most substantial and ready working members recently, but on the whole is in good condition, self-supporting, and increasing both in congregations and interest.

Most respectfully,

VENABLE JOHNSON, Treasurer.

REPORT OF REV. B. M. SPURR.

To the Rt. Rev. Geo. W. Peterkin, D. D.,

Parkersburg, W. Va.

MY DEAR BISHOP:—I have during the year been engaged in the management of the Reynold's Memorial Hospital, the details of which have been reported to you.

I have regularly visited the prison in Moundsville, when not otherwise engaged, and have there ministered to four men who have been executed during the year. I have also been instrumental in supplying the 950 convicts with large quantities of reading matter.

During the year I have preached fifteen times, given about seventy addresses, and celebrated the Holy Communion ten times. I now have regular Sunday evening service at the Hospital in what we call the Chapel of the Holy Comforter. At these services $15.00 has been collected which was sent to your special fund.

Respectfully Yours,

B. M. SPURR.

Resolved, That this Council call the attention of the members of this Church to the action of the House of Bishops respecting worldliness, and commends to their prayerful consideration and abstaining from all those forms of worldly amusements tending to bring reproach upon the Christian Religion; and

MAY, 1904.

Wednesday, 20th: The 26th Annual Council meeting to-day in St. Matthew's Church, Wheeling, was just two weeks before the usual time, in order to be coincident with the Bishop's 25th anniversary. The services were of unusual interest, and will be found detailed in the Secretary's report. We are under special obligation to the Rev. Jno. S. Gibson, for his admirable historical sermon, and cannot soon forget the late Bishop of Kentucky, who after an interval of twenty-five years, preached on our anniversary, as he did at our consecration. The presence also of the former Rectors, the Rev. Dr. Swope and the Rev. N. S. Thomas, added great interest to the occasion. According to our custom, our services continued through Sunday, 24th, Dr. Swope preaching at the Morning service and Bishop Peterkin in the evening.

REPORTS.

We have, now for a long time, been making efforts to secure more satisfactory reports from the various charges in the Diocese, year by year. In this we have met with some measure of success, and I believe that we now need only some slight changes in our present form to give us one that will be full and at the same time simple.

This is perhaps a more important matter than at first sight it appears to be. I know that with some persons there is a prejudice against reports as dealing too much with mere form, and with others there is a singular inaptitude for any work of this kind. Still, making all due allowance, I believe that a careless report shows a careless administration. If it were not for the consciousness that this is so, some of our reports would be positively ludicrous, as for instance where one man reports total receipts for all purposes of $430; total expenditures, $535, and yet a balance on hand of $35. He ought to give us the secret of his management; or as another reports upwards of $5,000 for current expenses, and about the same for contributions, or $10,000 in all, while the receipts from all sources, including borrowed money, amount to only one-half that sum. I think we ought to add to our Seminary curriculum a course on report making. In the meantime I hope that none of our clergy will fail to give this matter the serious attention it deserves.

I am led to make these remarks by going over the Parochial Reports that have come into my hands. I could wish that all could have that privilege. It would be quite a revelation. My attention has this year been called specially to the returns. Reports given in regard to missions, Diocesan and general, and whatever may be said of the weakness of the places represented and the strong local pressure upon them, I think many of the reports indicate but a feeble administration. I find, for instance, in 26 reports which I put aside as coming perhaps from the weakest points, that while they give as many as 635 communicants, their total contributions to missions, Diocesan and general amounted to only $225.72, and I cannot believe that this represents the real interest or ability of the people. The real explanation, I am disposed to think, is that the subject has not been frankly and wisely brought before them, and I say this all the more freely because it can be proven that if these 635 communicants had been in some way led up to give in proportion to the communicants in what is demonstrably the smallest and weakest Church in the Diocese, they would have given $1,524 instead of $225. This whole duty of Church extension is one that ought to be present continually on our hearts and consciences, so that our people would learn to regard it as fundamental and necessary. We should start out in the new year with this distinctly before us, and strive ever to impress upon all Church people, however few, or scattered that their alms as well as their prayers should go up as a memorial before God.

One word more, before I leave the subject of reports. What difficulty exists on this score is because many of the clergy will not follow the form which the Diocese has prescribed. The departure from this form is chiefly in two particulars: First, in the matter of current expenses and contributions. The form of Parochial Report which has been adopted arranges to keep these objects entirely separate, as it seems to me they ought to be in order, to give any clear idea of the administration in our several congregations. Again, the departure from the form is seen in the fact that money which is borrowed, and money secured from the outside is so often reported as if it were contributed by the congregation. Of course to do this is to give an erroneous idea as to the strength of the Parish, and indeed to make a report which is not in accordance with the facts of the case. This method of making out reports, which is not only inaccurate, but in face of the direction given on page 9 of the blank is carried to such an extent that in the report now in my hands, the contributions have been swelled to the extent of $13,498.12 beyond what they really have been, and as the result, but for the corrections I have made we would have been liable to an addition to our apportionment for General Missions to the extent of $387.93. I suppose every one is glad to see the figures in our reports swelled to the highest possible point, but that is not sufficient reason why we should report as contributions of our congregations, what we have borrowed and what has been given us from the outside. With the permission of the Council such modification will be made in certain of the headings in our present blank as to avoid the difficulties mentioned, for the future. There would have been ground for the fear that the blank itself was confusing save for the fact that out of 68 reports received only 26 departed from the prescribed form, leaving 42 correctly made out.

HOSPITALS.

Our hospitals have been doing a good work during the past year.

The Sheltering Arms Hospital at Paint Creek has cared for 389 patients, the number of nursing days being 8,444, which is 117 more than ever before. For this work there has been received from the miners and coal companies the sum of $7,520.43; from invested funds and special contributions, $1,722.39, and from the churches, i. e., chiefly, the annual offering on Thanksgiving Day, $738.36, making in all $9,981.18. The expenditures have been for salaries of doctor, nurses, matron, and the maintenance of the Training School, $3,034.49; for general expenses, $5,907.89; on account of new building, $727.25, a total of $9,669.63.

Steps have been taken to push forward the new building to completion at an early day, the hope being entertained that the 51 coal companies who in one way or another contribute to the annual expense fund, will help us towards this consummation.

The Reynolds Memorial Hospital reports through the Superintendent, the Rev. Mr. Spurr, that they have in the last year cared for 565 patients, of which number 270 were charity cases. The cost of maintaining the hospital for the year was $10,231.17 and $2,000 additional was spent on improvements.

Three nurses were graduated from the training school, to whom I delivered diplomas in December last, and there are now ten undergraduates.

NECROLOGY.

I do not generally occupy the time of the Council with any extended notice of those, our friends and brethren, whom God, in his wise providence, has taken to Himself since our last meeting, but to-day I want to say a few words about two who were with us in Wheeling last May, and are now, we believe, in the Paradise of God.

The late Bishop of Kentucky was my life-long friend and has been with us more than once, on occasions of public interest and importance. He was well known, and most highly esteemed throughout the Diocese, and I am sure that many have felt a sense of personal loss in his death. His gifts were of a very high order and freely used in the public service of the Church. In the general life of the Church there was no more prominent figure. His influence was felt everywhere. In the State which was proud of him, and in the Diocese to which he gave a prestige unknown before, in the House of Bishops, of which he was the honored chairman, in the commission for work among the colored people, of which he was the active and efficient chief, in the Board of Managers of our Missions, where he was a valuable counsellor, in the Church in Canada and the Church in England, where he was widely known and honored, and where by visits from time to time, he greatly helped to cultivate the happily prevailing fraternal feeling towards the Church in the United States. Truly one of our great leaders has passed away from us and in common with the great body of the Church, we lament his loss, and we honor his memory.

Just about the same time with the death of Bishop Dudley occurred that of Judge Rogers, of Wheeling. He was a devoted member of St. Luke's church, and Chancellor of the Diocese. Judge Rogers' interest in the Church was unfailing, and it was manifest all throughout his career by the personal service which he gave, and the substantial help he was always ready to render. In his long and active service he was more particularly identified with St. Luke's church, Wheeling. This congregation for years had the benefit of his nursing care, and in more ways than one must keenly feel his loss. Judge Rogers belonged to what we may properly call our old fashioned Virginia churchmen. Plain in his tastes, simple in his religious faith, but having devotion to the Master and His Church wrought into the very fibre of his being. He was from the first deeply interested in the Diocese, and gave it his wise counsel and his cordial support, and it was his happiness to see the blessing of God upon the labors which with like-minded men he put forth then to maintain and advance the Kingdom of God.

THE BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW.

The annual report of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew in the United States, for 1902-1903, has so brought before me the whole work for which the Brotherhood stands, that I feel I must say a few words about it.

The silence about the Brotherhood in West Virginia, is I fear, ominous. For all I see and hear to the contrary, many of its chapters must be inactive, and that notwithstanding what is called the forward movement in its present history.

I have been disposed in time past, rather to hold aloof from the active operation of the Brotherhood, not from indifference, but because it has seemed to me that it was needful to put, as far as possible, responsibility for its management upon the laymen who composed it. If it be true in any sphere of life that education consists largely in putting responsibility upon the individual, and helping him to shoulder it, and work it out, may it not be specially true in regard to the Brotherhood. It may be, in some instances that the clergy, too impatient of results, have attempted too much to direct and control the Brotherhood. My idea is to get it fairly started and then let the members work out their own salvation.

It maybe, too, that the departing—though with the best intentions—yet the departing from the simple rules of “definite prayer and personal service” have operated to check the development of the work. The Brotherhood, as I understand it, was never meant to take up all the work which laymen should do in the Church, although all departments of that work should feel the inspiration that comes from the quickened spiritual life of its members.

My advice to our chapters would be not to attempt too much, but to work strictly along the line of the Brotherhood’s Rules of Prayer and Service. In my judgment, their work is rather to vitalize in the way the general work of the Church, than to attempt to do it themselves.

If they thus keep to the simplicity of their organization, they will be the better able to add to their numbers and so widen their influence. This is a vastly important point, because it is estimated that the average chapter loses ten per cent of its membership every year, and this loss must be made good if the chapter is to maintain its efficiency.

Certainly this is a matter of sufficient importance to engage the most serious attention of our clergy and laity. I say of the clergy as well as the laity, for the clergy can do a vast deal to foster and encourage such organization without attempting so to run them as to supersede the activities of the members. The great point that all can help thus to emphasize and illustrate, is that, after all, the only true Christian life is one spent in definite service in behalf of others.

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY.

The meeting of the 26th Annual Council of the Diocese in Wheeling, on the 20th of May last year, was to me an occasion of unmixed pleasure and gratification. To have attained to a 25th anniversary was in itself no small achievement, but to have had all these years marked by the goodness and loving kindness of the Lord as shown in the prosperity of the Diocese, and in the unbroken harmony prevailing throughout our wide bounds, was something well nigh beyond experience and expectation. But to-day, by the lapse of a whole year after those festal days, we are reminded that anniversary days are but incidents; we must come down from these mounts of observation, and take up our work and go forward as God’s providence points out the way. Very much land remains yet to be possessed, and we have need to be diligent in doing what our hands find to do, the workmen change, but the work must go on, and so we, who are here to-day, having our faces steadily set to the future, rejoice in the opportunity given us to be coworkers with the Master in hastening His kingdom. None of the clergy, save the Bishop, are forbidden to seek other fields of labor where they may be able, perhaps, to exercise their ministry for the greater glory of God, but loyalty to the great Church of which the Parish and Diocese are after all, only a small part, should prompt and oblige us to undertake with zeal and carry on with diligence that work whether it be large or small, to which in the providence of God, we have been for the time assigned. Hardly anything is more demoralizing to the man or more hurtful to the Church than to have the minister continually looking out of and beyond his charge, not only losing interest in his work in desire for some other, but so showing that loss of interest as to discourage and demoralize his people. And this will prove, after all, but a poor way to advance any interests even from a worldly standpoint. I cannot tell you how, but I am convinced that the shortest as well as the most honorable road to preferment—if we may call it by this name—is diligent, unselfish, loyal service in the charge we already have. That charge, however small and humble it may be, is, after all, the great honor of our lives, and we are to purchase to ourselves a good degree by thorough going earnestness for the Kingdom whatever our position may be. The Diocese of West Virginia is one of the smallest of the tribes of Israel, but when we do our diligence to serve here, we are approving ourselves faithful servants, who shall in no wise lose their reward.

BUSINESS METHODS.

I have taken occasion so often during the last few years to insist upon the importance of carrying business methods into the management of our congregations, that I fear the exhortation is somewhat in danger of losing its effect. It is however sufficiently important in itself, and also as rendering the churches more ready for and efficient in distinctly aggressive work, as to deserve to be insisted upon again. In visiting a congregation a few months ago I found that the rector and vestry had agreed to make an assessment for all current expenses, in place of pew rents, subscriptions, and collections on occasions of public worship, and the principle upon which they acted seems to me indisputable, although, of course, I understand that even in putting principles into exercise, we can by no means always speedily accomplish our purpose.

The rector and vestry of whom I speak, argued out the case somewhat in this wise: that a certain number of people being associated together to meet certain expenses, they had mutually agreed to incur, that the fair and honorable thing was for each one of that number to do his or her part—i. e., for all to bear their share of the common expense. It would hardly seem as if anyone could do or would be willing to be considered as doing less than so much as this. If a dozen of us associated ourselves together in any enterprise, secular or religious, in any enterprise that involves expense, undertaken by common agreement, and for our mutual satisfaction and advantage, it is hard to state on what principle any one of us should be willing to do less than our part toward the common result, as the failure of anyone must, of necessity put an additional and unfair burden on someone else. The case is so simple that its mere statement ought to be sufficient. If you call upon a congregation to contribute for missions in Africa or China, or for some work nearer home, it is after all but one of many objects, and for many reasons it does not follow that all are equally interested or obliged, but when you call upon the different members of the congregation who are associated together for a definite purpose, for the means to carry out the definite purpose of their association, whether it be to pay the rector or the sexton, or to light and heat the church, then, since these and such like things are matters of common concern, it is to say the least very unseemly for one and another to put off upon some other member of the association, any part of his or her share of the burden of making such provision, as was ordered by, and is needed for all. If you have two or three or four parties of equal means, all privy to such understanding, then the administration is very simple, the whole expense being naturally divided into two, or three, or four parts as the case may be. Of course, when the number of such associating parties is increased and their financial condition greatly varies, the difficulty of administration is increased, but the principle remains unchanged, and seems to me to be of equal obligation. I think there can hardly be any more inequitable way of meeting these common current expenses than by collections taken up in the church, because there the faithful few are again and again dunned to meet obligations incurred by all and for all—obligations which a very large proportion of the congregation practically escape, by absenting themselves, with more or less reason, from the service. And oftentimes scarcely less inequitable is the ordinary subscription when there is so little regard paid to the comparative ability of subscribers to meet the common debt. Of course there are many notable exceptions—perhaps more than enough to prove the rule—but that does not altogether relieve the general situation. In making such assessment or apportionment, call it what you will, the greatest care must, of course be taken, lest it should in some cases be considered unfair. It is believed however that if it be made by a vestry that fairly represents the people, that it will in the vast majority of cases be accepted by the people, and produce most excellent results in the working of the congregation. You will hardly find anyone who is not willing to avow that he is ready and willing to do his part, no one would like to be thought unwilling to do so much as that; if then that part be fairly assigned I believe we shall see a more hearty and efficient co-operation than is usual. Certainly the plan seems worthy of trial.

APPORTIONMENTS AND ASSESSMENTS.

The principle underlying apportionments and assessments is the same, though there seems to be a kind of tacit understanding that the failure to meet apportionments shall not be carried on in our accounts as arrears, and I very much fear that this operates at times to lessen the sense of obligation. We have had a large increase made this year in our apportionment for the General Missions of the Church, and I think it will require all our diligence to meet it. This has seemed to some to be an undue or unfair burden put upon us especially because the large increase in our contributions was due greatly to the effort we had made to increase the Permanent Fund. Still we raised the money for that fund and it stands there on the record as helping to show our ability. During the last four or five years we have increased our Permanent Fund upwards of $30,000. In addition to the help that is to us in our Diocesan administration, it shows a vitality and power we ought to be glad to utilize for the general advancement of the Kingdom. Our general contributions are in some cases twice as great as those of Dioceses of about the same size. No doubt they would be glad to take our apportionment if they could raise our contributions.

I am afraid, however, that after all the efforts made in one way or another, both by Diocesan and general agencies, that many of our clergy do by no means yet appreciate the obligations of which we are speaking, and one chief reason I have for making such statement at this time, is that I find both in the matter of general apportionment and of Diocesan assessment, that months—sometimes half the year—are suffered to pass without doing anything to meet these accumulating responsibilities. I cannot but characterize this as very poor administration. It does the congregations injustice by accumulating obligations that ought to be spread out over the year, all in a few months, and it cripples the administration of the Church when the funds that have to be regularly paid out come so irregularly in, that debts are incurred and interest has to be paid. Why should not every man, in the very beginning of the year, deliberately face all its obligations, and from the very first, begin to make provision to meet them regularly and promptly. It would be hard for anyone to tell what is gained by a delay that is demoralizing to the congregation and embarrassing to all beneficiaries.

SMALL CHURCHES.

We have been more than usually troubled during the past year in securing supply for our smaller congregations. At times the difficulties in the way seem almost insuperable, and they are not peculiar to West Virginia, or to the Episcopal Church. I find them everywhere, and they are discussed now under one aspect and now under another. The question is often proposed under the title of "The Difficulties of Our Country Churches," and that fits our case fairly well, for although we may not have many churches that we would speak of as absolutely in the country, yet often times the villages are very small, and even those that claim the more pretentious title of town, would hardly be counted as such in more populous states. Under the designation, then of country churches we may fairly place about one-half of the congregations that have regular services, perhaps 40 in number, to say nothing of double that number of places which we are trying to reach with the ministrations of our church.

These difficulties that are inherent in the situation, are being met in two ways, which seem to give reasonable promise of success.

First. We are trying more frequently so to combine various points—if you choose, many points—under the leadership of one man, that we can secure such support as will enable us to secure a man of more experience and capacity than such small places can generally obtain, being fully convinced that the services of such a man, for a part of the time, are often worth more to a church than the services of a man of less experience and ability for the whole of the time. Unfortunately many of our small congregations fail to recognize this fact, and so commit themselves to the plan of having a resident minister, that failing in this, they give but scanty support to any other plan, although it may be the only one practicable. And yet, experience shows that such congregations very much overestimate the advantages of a resident minister, and when they do from time to time secure one, they fail to make the progress predicted. The simple truth is that be our advantages what you please, yet the great mass of the people of the various communities where our services are established, are well satisfied with their church affiliations, and have no idea of leaving them to join us. Time and again our sanguine members have been encouraged by friendly expressions from outsiders, to indulge hopes which have been doomed to meet with disappointment. After the experience of these years I am the more convinced that if we can get Godly and experienced men, with the physical endurance for such work, and a sufficient sense of the proportion of things to keep them from slighting the smaller places and putting them off with the minimum of attention, that we shall find this the most effective plan for our work. There are perhaps some places that require services to be held continuously and uninterruptedly, but I believe that oftentimes the results do not justify the contention. At all events, we will have to make up our minds that unless we more freely adopt some such plan, we shall have to abandon large sections of territory in this state, and that in view of the fact that our early successes and advances were all made under this system.

Second. The second way in which these difficulties are being met is by the freer use of our women in the work of the Church. There can be no doubt but that in all lines of missionary effort, woman's work is becoming increasingly prominent and rightly so. In speaking of this some one has recently said that the modern Priscilla is not only competent to teach Apolos the things that may be lacking in his message, but also to carry the Gospel message herself to communities that are not able to avail themselves of the services of Apollos.

Boards of Missions in some states are availing themselves to good advantage of the services of Christian women in sparsely settled regions, where the churches are utterly unable to support pastors. These workers go from house to house with the Gospel message; they gather the children in Sunday schools; and hold meetings on week day evenings as well as on the Lord's day. Their house to house visitations supply a need which in such sections, the clergy seem unable to meet. May not more of our sparsely settled country, and our mining districts, yes, and our feeble missions find great help in the problems that confront them in connection with the spiritual life of the people, in the consecrated labors of Christian women, who desire to devote their time to the Master's work. We have made but a beginning in such work, yet one full of promise. On the mountain near Charles Town, in Parkersburg, at the Sheltering Arms Hospital, and at Ansted, Christian women are now doing such work with marked ability and success. These women are now reaching in Parochial schools, and boys' clubs, and sewing schools, and girls' societies of various kinds, more than 300 children, who would otherwise be practically untouched by any such uplifting and churchly influence, and in addition to that they are, by house to house visitations, and by personal ministration to the sick and to the well, reaching hundreds of individuals, who have been as sheep without a shepherd.

In these two ways we are making some little progress in what our hands find to do. We thank God and take courage.

And here I cannot but touch upon a question that I know is sometimes troublesome, especially where we have but small bands of friends and communicants in the midst of large communities who have other church associations. Some persons have a short and easy method of solving the problems of which we have been speaking, by saying that it is best for the little minority of church people in many communities, to abandon their distinctive features, and throw in their lot with some other communion which, in the providence of God, seems fully established. Of course, if a man cannot give a reason of the faith that is in him, if he be not fully persuaded in his own mind, if he be indifferent as to the various questions of doctrine, discipline and worship that distinguish the churches one from the other, if, in short, for him one church is just as good, as efficient, as scriptural as another, why, then, perhaps we had better let the matter rest as far as such an one is concerned. But I do not believe this feeling is common, and it is well it is not, for it seems to me that this spirit of indifferentism will cause a man to fail to measure up to the highest standard of excellence in character and usefulness of life. If any eccles-fastical organization in the world can claim to be on record as against division in the body of Christ, it is the Episcopal Church. She has never separated from any other organization, nor has she condemned or pronounced judgment on those who have separated from her. She stands where she has always stood, both ecclesiastically and organically, on the faith and order of the Primitive Church. There are some of her people, I grant you, who have themselves taken this matter in hand, and by their judgment and criticism have often made it appear that we stand in an arrogant attitude toward non-Episcopal churches. In the freedom they enjoy in this comprehensive church, you have an illustration of how an organization may show the defect of its merits, but meantime the Church steadily declines to criticize or pronounce judgment upon those from whom we have been unhappily separated.

The particular point, however, which I want now to insist upon is that no irenic spirit, and no recognition of the grace of God which is manifest in the abundant labors of the Christian ministers about us, can justify us in turning a deaf ear to our scattered people who are looking to us to help them to the privileges which we ourselves already enjoy. It is just along this line that plans for consolidation and co-operation often break down. We, who are in the larger centers, may, perhaps, seek to free ourselves from much responsibility and from many burdens, by advising some small band of church people appealing for help, to unite with some other body of Christians, but how would we like such advice to be given to ourselves under similar circumstances. I cannot imagine it acceptable, except in the case of those who, however, pious, have more or less that spirit of indifferentism to which I alluded.

Without entering into the discussion of church principles, or seeking to bring out distinctly what may be called the church idea, I am disposed to adopt the sentiments of a prominent divine of another church, who, contending against the idea of church indifferentism, says that the observation of twenty-five years of active pastoral work has convinced him that the usefulness of any church member is in direct proportion to the strength of his attachment to his own church, and this depends upon the intensity of his convictions as to the tenets and the distinctive features of that church. Those who have no sincere convictions, and are generally indifferent, thinking one church just as good, as efficient, as scriptural as another cannot be depended on in any good work. They will send their children to the Sunday school of other churches, and will themselves attend other churches as convenience or caprice may dictate. Some of the older ones among us may remember how, during the war between the States, we always looked askance upon a man, who, while he professed to be a soldier, yet disclaimed connection with any particular regiment or battalion. I suppose there might have been exceptions, but such a position did not commend itself to our judgment. Of course, we don't want bigots and partisans, but we do want men who have some, not only preferences, but convictions, touching the work and worth of their own churches. Loyalty to our own church, need not be synonymous with narrowness, and conscientiousness may consist with the warmest charity, but for all that the true churchman will work for Christ and the Church, all the more efficiently if he is thoroughly persuaded that his church is apostolic in its order, scriptural in its doctrine, and that its forms, hallowed by the use of so many generations, are the best for decency, comfort and edification. Every such man, however kindly his feelings toward all about him, will nevertheless feel that he has been appointed of Almighty God to stand for most important facts, and it requires such men to build up a church as it should be built, and to hasten the coming of the Redeemer's kingdom.

So we find our work goes on year after year without any great difference in method or result. While we must be hopeful, we must also avoid unreasonable expectations. After all that I have said about the importance of loyalty to our own branch of the Catholic Church, and deeply as I feel that our efficiency in advancing the Kingdom is chiefly determined by our efficiency in that organization with which in the providence of God we are identified, yet when you come to the last analysis, the great stimulating thought is that we are working for Christ and the Church, rather than simply for our branch of the Church. We must be contented to take our place and do our part in the great work of bringing our State and country and the whole world into obedience to Christ. In certain places and at certain times that part may be very much less prominent and effective than we could desire, and as a consequence discouragement may ensue. We must, however, learn to rejoice in the progress of the Kingdom even if it be not exactly along those lines which we specially favor. We are not the only laborers in the Lord's vineyard, the whole burden of work and responsibility for advancement does not fall upon our shoulders. Loyalty to Christ and an earnest desire to serve Him should be the great inspiration. Then we shall work along day by day, and year by year, and though we yet see not anywhere all things put upder Christ's feet, yet in all our work—whether the world calls it successful or not—we are sustained by the confident belief that Christ shall reign and that His Kingdom shall so come that every knee shall bow to him, and every tongue confess that He is Lord of all. To this work we consecrate ourselves afresh, and may the good Lord accept the imperfect offering, and make us glad and faithful in His service, even while life shall last.

The Special Committee on the General Clergy Relief Fund reports progress and asks to be continued.

S. SCOLLAY MOORE,
Chairman.

The Special Committee to which was referred the communication from the Diocese of California, submitted this report which was received and the appended resolution adopted:

To the 27th Annual Council of the Diocese of West Virginia:

The Special Committee to whom was referred the communication from the Diocese of California informing this Council of its having petitioned the General Convention of 1904 to permit the use of the Revised Version in the lessons in Morning and Evening Prayer, respectfully report:

Inasmuch as by authorizing the use in the lessons of Morning and Evening Prayer of "The Marginal Readings Bible" the General Convention has recognized the wisdom of giving our people who hear the word of God in the public services of the Church the light that has come to us upon the meaning of the original from the labors of the more recent devout and learned translators; and inasmuch as both by some of the English Bishops, and the action of some of our Bishops and Dioceses, the use of the Canterbury Version, in one or other of its editions, as tending to promote a fuller understanding of the revelation of God and his truth, is being urged, it is the opinion of your committee that the clergy and people of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States ought to have the liberty to read such version in the public services of the Church in the parts specified, viz: the lessons of Morning and Evening Prayer. And, as the petition of the Diocese of California is that such permissive use be granted, your committee feel that it will be altogether fitting that the Diocese of West Virginia should be one of those to support the granting of such petition in General Convention in 1904.

Your committee therefore recommends the passage of the following:

Resolved, That the Deputies of this Diocese in the General Convention of 1904 be informed that the sentiment of the Church in West Virginia favors granting the permissive use of the Revised Version in reading the lessons in public worship; and that, when the matter comes to vote in General Convention, if the light then thrown upon the subject by debate and conference makes it appear wise to grant such permission, if they can support California in her petition they will be acting agreeably to the sense of their constituency.

JNO. S. GIBSON.

C. E. A. MARSHALL.

JNO. S. ALFRIEND.

G. A. ASCHMAN.

The report of the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missions Committee submitted this report, which was made the order of the day for Friday, 10 A. M.:

The Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society submits the following report of its work for the past year:

The report of the Treasurer shows the receipts of the Society from all sources to have been $3,187.27, which is less than those of last year by nearly $150. Expenditures during the year have been $3,937.48, or $750 in excess of receipts. This large expenditure was justified by the fact that we entered the year with a considerable balance in the treasury and was due to an increase in the stipends of the men in the field, which your Committee deemed it wise, if not necessary, to make, in order that the work might be maintained and the men supported.

With this sum 27 men and one woman, working in all sections of the Diocese, have been aided—the average stipend being about $137. Five of these have now removed from the Diocese and the vacancies thus caused remain as yet unfilled. The balance in the treasury at the close of the present year is $1,127.97, which will enable us, with receipts upon the basis of the present assessment and of the experience of recent years, to meet the obligations of the coming year, but will leave us with practically no means to meet stipends falling due almost immediately after its close. We need, therefore, large increase in our receipts for the maintenance of our present work. In making our forecast we desire that the Diocese shall know exactly what the situation is—our resources and the demands of the work.

It seems impossible for us to follow rigid rules in administering this fund, but we are guided by certain general principles. We aim to give every missionary a house and $800 a year. We are still far short of this. Would need more than $3,000 additional each year to enable us to reach it. But we have made distinct advance in the past two years and have now brought the average up to about 700, subject, however, to some deduction for travelling expenses, which some of the men must pay.

For the maintenance of this standard we need $4,030 each year, which, with $1,200 from the General Board, $650 from the American Church Missionary Society and $975 from Convocational and special funds, will give us a total Missionary Fund of $6,855. This amount we propose to distribute in the manner shown in the following tables, which with the memoranda annexed, have been prepared by the Bishop for the use of the Council.

In addition to the above the women of the Diocese, by special effort, support a woman Missionary at the Sheltering Arms Hospital, who works there and at adjoining points.

It will be perceived that the above schedule leaves St. Phillips, Charles Town, with $550 salary—St. Marks, Berkeley Springs, with $500 and Buckhannon and Spruce with $600, but no rectory; these are the smallest salaries. Taking into the account certain special cases indicated above, and allowing for the rent of five houses for rectories and for necessary travelling expenses, it is considered fair to estimate the average salary, in money on the above list at $675.

It will also be perceived that for the present at least, Ravenswood Parish with four churches is put with St. Mary's, etc. And it will appear later that it has seemed best also to continue Welch and its dependencies, as attached to Bramwell, to provide for these properly, and to increase the small salaries mentioned above, up to the average, would require about $1,500 additional. But as the $4,030 scheduled above as appropriated for the coming year, is $1,089 over our assessment, the Committee did not venture to make further appropriation. We expect to get through this year with the help of the balance of about $1,000 now on hand, but we earnestly ask for $4,000 for the coming year.

It must be understood that beside the 61 places mentioned above as principal points, there are about 30 that are regularly reached by our Missionaries.

So far we have been dealing only with the Missions, but to get a more complete view of the work of the Diocese, I give below a list of our self supporting charges. Eighteen in all, viz.:

Sutton, Little Otter, Centralia, Richwood.

*Bramwell, Eckman, Welch, Elkhorn, Maybeury, etc.

Beside the 31 places mentioned in this list there are about 20 that are regularly reached by the clergy in charge. And besides the 142 places mentioned in both lists, there are about 50 which the Bishops and Clergy visit from time to time as opportunity offers.

To recapitulate, it appears that in the whole Diocese there are really 26 missionary charges or circuits, though two of them are temporarily connected with others.

Properly to care for these points we need $5,500, but in default of that we have ventured to make appropriations only to the extent of $4,030, this sum with $2,825 from other sources gives us all told a Missionary fund of $6,855 and this added to the $10,435 raised by the Missions for their own support enables us to provide Rectories, pay necessary traveling expenses, and give an average salary of about $675 in money.

These Missions have about 1,550 communicants and are expected to contribute to our Diocesan Mission work $700 a year.

Back of this work and supporting it, are the 18 self supporting charges which with 3,125 communicants are expected to contribute to our Diocesan Mission work the sum of $2,250 a year. As a help to the understanding of their financial ability it appears from the Journal that they raise a salary fund of $19,645 which after making certain deductions for house rent and traveling expenses affords an average salary of $1,040 a year.

This then is the situation as far as it can here be stated. For this work which is full of encouragement we want $4,000 for the coming year. Our last Journal reported 8,000 baptized persons in the Diocese. An average contribution of one cent a week from all these, would give us more than the amount asked. What will you do about it?

Your Committee has but two suggestions to make, which it will put into the form of questions.

1. Are there not places in the Diocese, able and willing to assume a larger measure of obligation for this work than that imposed by the report of the Committee on Assessments? One dollar for each communicant—less than two cents a week—would seem no heavy burden to assume for work so necessary to be done. Will not each parish and mission assessed at less than this aim to bring its contribution up to this figure at least?

2. Are there not individuals in the Diocese who in response to personal appeals from their rectors can be induced to supplement the contributions from the parishes and missions by some individual gifts, either occasional or stated?

The election of Deputies to the General Convention was made the order of the day for 4 P. M. to-day.

The Rev. John S. Gibson for the Committee on Constitution and Canons, submitted the following report upon the recodification of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese. On motion, it was made the order of the day for 2:30 P. M. Friday.

To the 27th Annual Council of the Diocese of West Virginia:

The Committee on Constitution and Canons were requested to report to this Council a recodification of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese and to embody therein such amendments and alterations as might seem desirable. Your Committee have performed that duty to the best of their ability, acting on such suggestions and proposals of amendment as came to them from time to time, and present the result in the printed leaflet hereto attached. This leaflet was printed to contain such Canons as have been changed or added, but does not contain those which remain as they were, nor a few which need only to be rearranged or slightly modified in their language.

Your Committee recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of West Virginia as presented by the Committee on Constitution and Canons be substituted for those now in force.

JNO. S. GIBSON.
JOHN S. DOUGLAS.
DAVID W. HOWARD.
JOSEPH TRAPNELL.

Council took a recess for Divine service.

THURSDAY, 2:30 P. M.

The Council was called to order by the Bishop.

Mr. W. D. Alvord was invited to address the Council upon the subject of the Anti-Saloon League of the United States, which he did in a very interesting manner.

The Rev. A. J. Willis offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Council instructs the Committee on Assessments to assess the parishes and not the individual churches, the names of the churches being put in brackets opposite the name of the parish.

The Rev. A. M. Lewis moved that the third page of the Journal be left blank.

The motion was laid on the table.

The Rev. W. P. Chrisman presented this report from the Committee on Sunday schools.

For the first resolution appended, this substitute was adopted:

Resolved, That the Committee on Sunday Schools appoint one clergyman and one layman from each of the convocations of the Diocese to assist in the work.

The second resolution appended was laid on the table.

Your Committee on Sunday Schools beg to submit the following report:

The number of schools in the Diocese, 58; teachers, 373; scholars, 3,078; total 3,451. The Advent Offering of 31 schools was $453.47, which is the largest Advent Offering ever made by the Sunday schools. Nevertheless we would call your attention to the fact that 27 schools failed to send any offering to Diocesan Missions. Two years ago the same number were delinquent. We would therefore urge these schools to fall in line, and make an offering for Diocesan Missions, be it ever so small.

When we consider that the vast majority of scholars that attend our Sunday schools are members of Christ, the children of God, and inheritors of the Kingdom of Heaven by baptism, then we recognize that the Sunday school is part of the Church of Christ, and not an adjunct thereto. This being so it reminds us that in each congregation there are many mature Christians bound by the most solemn obligations so see that these children hear sermons that they "learn the creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments, and all other things which a Christian ought to know and believe to his soul's health." This means that we cannot divorce one from the other without an injury to both. It recognizes the Sunday school as the department of instruction for the younger members of the flock, and not as a children's service that is to take the place of the regularly appointed order for morning and evening prayer. Here then your Committee would utter a warning against any system of instruction or service leaflets that leave the impression on the mind of scholars, teachers or parents that it is the children's service and therefore they are relieved from further attendance upon the regular services of the Church. Two years ago resolutions were adopted by the Council recommending the formation of teachers' training classes, more thorough Church teaching in the Sunday schools, and conferences for Sunday school workers. They were good and timely resolutions, but unless some way is devised for keeping them before the minds of those interested in the Sunday schools of the Diocese very little good will result from their adoption. The Committee on Sunday Schools as constituted at present is taken entirely from the Northwestern Convocation and this necessarily brings them in touch with a very limited number of our schools and consequently our work and report is more or less of a local nature. In order to remedy this and bring this Committee in vital touch with every school in the Diocese we would earnestly and respectfully ask the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That the Committee on Sunday Schools be composed of one clergyman and one layman from each of the Convocations of the Diocese.

2. That it shall be the duty of such members to visit or communicate with each school within the bounds of their Convocation at least once a year, to arrange for Sunday School Institutes, to compile such data as may be necessary for an accurate and thorough report to the Council, and otherwise to lead an active and aggressive work in their respective Convocations.

The tellers reported the election of Mr. C. L. Thompson as the fourth lay deputy to the General Convention.

Resolved, That the Missions Committee, in such manner as seems wise to them, endeavor to have the Mission stations now supported in part from the Diocesan Mission funds, increase the amounts they pay to the support of their missionaries by a sum aggregating $500.00

The Council took a recess for Divine service.

FRIDAY, 2:30 P. M.

The Bishop called the Council to order.

The resolution offered by the Committee on Constitution and Canons was taken up.

The Constitution proposed as a substitute for the present Constitution, as presented by the Committee, was unanimously adopted by a vote taken by orders.

The body of Canons was then taken up. Mr. Peebles Tatum moved the adoption of the unnumbered canon relating to an ecclesiastical court.

The Rev. Dr. Moore moved to postpone the consideration of the whole body of Canons until the next Council. Adopted.

The Committee on Assessments presented their report, which was adopted. (See Appendix.)

The Rev. J. S. Gibson offered this resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, That the apportionment for General Missions be apportioned to our parishes in the same sums as those for which they are assessed for Diocesan Missions.

The Rev. A. J. Grinnan moved that the Council receive the report of the Committee on Parochial Reports. Adopted.

The Rev. G. W. Easter submitted the following report of the Committee on Education:

The resolution appended was adopted.

The Committee on Religious and Theological Education desires to call the attention of the clergy and laity of the Diocese to two matters.

1st. That by one of the Canons of the Church, it is made obligatory that at least one collection for religious and theological education shall be made in each congregation each year. It is a fact that this requirement is not complied with in many cases and in consequence the funds available for Religious and Theological Education are not commensurate with the needs and ability of the Diocese.

2nd. This Diocese has five young men preparing for the ministry at the Theological Seminary of Virginia, which is also the Seminary of this Diocese, towards whose support we contributed last year, ending April 30, 1904, $300, which is less than one-half the necessary amount. The deficiency was supplied by the Education Society of the Diocese of Virginia. We ought not to be willing thus to depend upon a sister Diocese to supply a lack which is clearly due, in large part at least, to the failure to tell our people the purpose and needs of the fund and to give them an opportunity to contribute to it. One-ninth of all the students at the Seminary are our own men and we give less than half the amount necessary for their support.

The Committee, therefore, offers the following resolution:

Resolved, That the clergy of the Diocese are hereby urged to set before all their people the purposes and needs of the fund for Religious and Theological Education and to make at least one collection for it annually as required by Canon upon some Sunday when there is likely to be a full attendance at service.

Respectfully submitted.

GEO. W. EASTER.
J. HOWARD GIBBONS.
ARTHUR M. LEWIS.
C. L. THOMPSON.
W. G. HUBBARD.

The Rev. Dr. Moore offered this resolution, seconded by the Rev. J. S. Gibson, which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Council commends to the American Church Missionary Society the importance of continuing its interest in, and support of, its domestic work, and that the Secretary be instructed to communicate to the Secretary of that Society this resolution

The Rev. Dr. Moore submitted the report of the Committee on the Permanent and Episcopal Funds.

The resolution appended was adopted.

The Committee on the Permanent and Episcopal Funds respectfully reports that we have examined with care the reports of the trustees of the Permanent Fund and of the Treasurer of the Episcopal Fund.

We find the Permanent Fund to be capitalized now at $35,919.62, which is held by the Central Banking and Security Co., of Parkersburg, Treasurer, and is represented by the following items, viz:

Bonds, pledges, notes, etc	$33,618 00
Cash to credit of trustees	1,913 56
Balance on two pledges in hands of trustees.....	250 00
Interest account overpaid	138 06

Total$35,919 62

The Trustees have paid out $138.06 more than their receipts on account of interest, but this, we are informed, is an apparent, rather than an actual overpayment and will be corrected by the return of this sum to the principal during the coming year.

Comparing this report with that of last year (Journal, 1903, p. 94), it will be seen that there has been a slight increase of the fund, the capital being now about $285.00 in excess of the sum reported then.

With reference to the Episcopal Fund, the Treasurer's report shows payments on account of the assessments amounting to $3,277.33, which is $352.69 less than the amount assessed. The bulk of this deficit comes from the failure of 29 points, upon which assessments have been laid, out of a total of 79 such points, to make any payment at all during the year. These are among the weak Mission points in the Diocese, for the most part, their aggregate assessment for this Fund being only $212. There have been, however, payments from various points on account of arrearages aggregating $397.93, and small contributions amounting to $28.68 from places unassessed, which have brought contributions to the Fund to a total of $3,703.94, which, with the interest upon the invested Permanent Fund paid to the Treasurer by the Trustees, has enabled him to pay all salaries, meet all contingent expenses and close the year with a balance of $566.82 in the Treasury.

Your Committee would especially commend the care and accuracy displayed by the custodians of these two Funds in managing their trusts and presenting to the Council their reports.

We would also urge again the importance of renewed and constant efforts to increase the Permanent Fund to the sum, at least, hitherto aimed at, viz.: $50,000.

To this end we would call attention to the Canonical requirement of an annual offering from every congregation in the Diocese for this Fund and would offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That this Council commends to ministers in charge of our congregations the needs of this Fund and requests that on or about Ascension Day in each year an offering for this purpose shall be taken.

Mr. Joseph Trapnell made report for the Finance Committee.

The report and recommendations were adopted.

The undersigned Finance Committee report that they have examined and audited the accounts of the Trustees of the Permanent Fund, the Treasurer of the Diocese and the Trustee of the Episcopal and Contingent Funds.

The balance in the hands of the Treasurer of the several funds are as follows:

Permanent Fund as of May 18, 1904:
Securities	$33,018 00
Cash	1,913 56
Total	$35,531 56
Treasurer of Diocese, June 1, 1904.
Diocesan Missions	$ 1,127 97
Religious and Theological Education	14 03
Widows and Orphans	5,898 15
Episcopal and Contingent Fund.
Balance June 1, 1904.....	$ 566 82

The detailed statements accompany this report and should be printed as appendices to the Journal.

The disbursements charged are sustained by proper vouchers.

The Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the treasurer of the Contingent Fund be instructed to pay out of the funds coming to his hands the annual rent of the residence now occupied by the Bishop Coadjutor until the further order of the Council and that the said treasurer do pay to the sexton of the church of Martinsburg ten dollars for his services during this Council.

Committee.

The Rev. J. S. Gibson offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the trustees of the Permanent Fund be informed that the Council desires that contributions made annually to the Permanent Fund be invested and not treated as uninvested funds.

Mr. C. H. Scott offered this resolution:

Resolved, That this Council calls the attention of the members of this church to the action of the House of Bishops, respecting worldliness, and solemnly urges on them the duty of observing the rule of sobriety and moderation in all things; of maintaining strictly their own personal purity and integrity; and of vigorously discountenancing and wholly abstaining from participation in all forms, customs, and habits of business and pleasure that are immoral, indecent, and at variance with the spirit of Christ as revealed in His Holy Gospel.

Resolved, That the secretary of the Council be instructed to print the foregoing resolution in place of the resolution on the third page of the cover of the proceedings of the Council, prefacing it with the words: Resolution adopted at the session of the Council in Martinsburg, June 1-6, 1904.

The Rev. J. S. Gibson offered the following substitute, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the secretary of the Diocese have the Council Journal of 1904 bound in paper and printed only with the proper title and the list of places and dates of the meetings of future Councils.

The Rev. D. W. Howard submitted the report of the Committee on the State of the Church as follows:

REPORT.

Your Committee on the State of the Church begs leave to report:

The conditions of the work throughout the Diocese show a decided and steady growth. This fact we gather from several sources, and we believe, is brought about by the earnest and untiring labors of our Bishops, together with the clergy and laity working under their direction. The children of the Diocese should be commended for their zeal in the cause of Missions, both Diocesan and general, which augurs well for the future, when they shall take the place of the present generation in our parishes and missions.

This year a larger number of confirmations is reported than ever before, and from information gathered, we know of many of these candidates having been prepared and presented to the rector for the laying on of hands by our faithful body of Sunday school teachers.

During the past year, seven new points have been visited by the Bishops, and work commenced; and several mission points have been greatly strengthened, and are now, or will soon be, entirely self-supporting.

Another source of encouragement is the progress made in the woman's work throughout the Diocese. The increased interest in the Woman's Auxiliary, and the Junior Auxiliary to the Board of Missions, together with the excellent work accomplished by our deaconess and three women workers, cannot fail to bring splendid results in our Diocesan work.

With regard to the communication presented to this Council, and referred to your Committee, respecting the International Congress on Sunday Rest, we recommend that this Council express its sympathy with the object this communication has in view.

Having gathered from the statistics relative to work accomplished during the past year, the knowledge of a considerable growth in our Diocesan work, we earnestly trust that the current year may bring forth still greater fruitfulness.

Respectfully submitted,

DAVID W. HOWARD.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE PERMANENT FUND OF THE
EDNING MAY 18, 1904.

By order of Council of 1902, the Central Banking and Security Company, of Parkersburg, West Virginia, was named as Treasurer of the Permanent Fund. The accounts given below include transactions had by the Trustees direct, as well as those occurring with the Treasurer.

The report made to the Council of 1903, published in the Journal for that year (pp. 86 to 92), closed on May 18, 1903, and showed the condition of the fund on that day to be (p. 86 of Journal):

Investments, pledges, etc.....	$18,412 00
Cash	8,198 51
	$26,610 51

And on page 92 of the Journal of 1903 is found a supplemental report, made after adjournment of Council, in order to show contributions, received from the offerings in commemoration of the 25th Anniversary of the Consecration of the first Bishop of the Diocese, Rt. Rev. Geo. W. Peterkin—Ascension Day, May 21, 1903.

That supplemental report at page 94 shows that the increase of the fund during the year, including session of Council of 1903, was $13,301.48.

To conform to the Treasurer's accounts and to official statements made to Council, we avoid confusion by now ignoring the supplemental report, and recur to the regular report of 1903, duly presented at Wheeling May 20, 1903, including May 18 of that year.

REPORT OF THE REV. B. M. SPURR.

My Dear Bishop:

You must forgive my tardiness in sending this report, but absence in searching for Philip Brittingham's body and bringing the same home, caused that delay and my failure to get to the Sheltering Arms.

In the past year our hospital cared for 565 patients, of which 270 were charity cases.

The cost of running the hospital for the year was $12,231.17, of which amount, $2,000 was spent for improvements. We graduated three nurses from our training school last December, who had the honor of receiving their diplomas at your hands. There are now ten under graduates in the school.

My work at the prison has been as usual, preaching, comforting, advising and preparing men for the scaffold.

I have preached in and out of the Diocese during the year, 187; baptisms, 10; burials, 9; marriages, 5; have found means for the expenses of the hospital, the building of a deaconess house and two industrial schools at Charles Town and Ansted. Provide also the means for supporting one deaconess and one teacher.

Have visited the following places in the Diocese, Mannington, (16 times) Montgomery, Paint Creek, Mount Carbon, Ansted, St. Andrews of the Mountain, (2) Charles Town, Ripley, Ravenswood, Little Otter, Sutton, Centralia, Richwood, Flatwood, Harper's Ferry.

Trusting that this report gives all the information you desire, permit me to remain,

Faithfully yours,

B. M. SPURR.

REPORT OF THE REV. OLIVER J. WHILDEN, MISSIONARY TO DEAF MUTES.

1017 W. Hopkins Avenue,
Baltimore, Md., June 10.

*The Rt. Rev. G. W. Peterkin, D. D.,
Bishop of West Virginia.*

My Dead Bishop:

I beg to report the following as missionary to the deaf in the Diocese of West Virginia:

I have held ten services during the year: four in Wheeling, two in Romney, one in Parkersburg, and three in Huntington. I baptized one adult deaf-mute in St. Matthew's Church, Wheeling, and four adults and one infant in Trinity Church, Huntington. I had presented for confirmation one in Wheeling and six in Huntington.

The receipts from all sources were as follows:

1903.

Aug. 31	Mrs. G. W. Steenrod, Wheeling.....	$ 5 00
Sept. 4	E. M. Hoge, Wheeling.....	5 00
27	Rev. D. W. Howard, Wheeling	5 00
27	Offering at service, Wheeling	10 10
Nov. 11	Offering at service, Wheeling.....	7 47
13	Offering at service, Parkersburg.....	50
14	Offering at service, Huntington,	5 00
Dec. 1	Good Shepherd, Parkersburg, through Bp. P.....	10 00
Jan. 10	School for the deaf, Romney.....	10 00
Mch. 11	Rev. Mr. Howard, $5.00; offering at service, $1.87.....	6 87
13	Offering at service, Huntington.....	4 11
May 10	School for the deaf, Romney.....	12 00
13	Offering at service, Wheeling	6 00
15	Offering at service, Huntington	1 45

$78 50

My expenses—railroad fares, hotel bills, postage, etc., probably amounted to a little less than the above sum.

I think this is the best report of work done in any one of the other Dioceses—ten services, six baptisms, and seven confirmations.

The Diocese of Southern Virginia has appropriated $150 annually towards the work, Virginia gives $50, Tennessee $50 and Mississippi $50. I am waiting to hear from a few others. I hope West Virginia may soon be in a position to allow something—the possibilities for doing good work in West Virginia are great, greater, perhaps, than in those Dioceses that allow a stipend.

I am very sorry to have to report the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Steenrod, a sainted deaf-mute woman of St. Matthew's mission, Wheeling. Mrs. Steenrod was very helpful and gave bountifully towards the support of the work. Her loss will be very seriously felt in the matter of support; her influence for good was so great among the half a hundred deaf-mutes I almost despair for the future. But I am hopeful that the good she did will help as a precious memory.

Very sincerely yours,

OLIVER J. WHILDEN.

General Missionary to the Deaf.

JOURNAL

TWENTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL COUNCIL OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE DIOCESE OF WEST VIRGINIA.

CLARKSBURG, WEST VIRGINIA,

May 31st, 1905.

Pursuant to the call of the Bishop to meet on Wednesday, May 31st instead of on the first Wednesday in June the Twenty-eighth Annual Council of the Diocese of West Virginia met in Christ Church this day at 9:45 a. m.

Morning prayer was said by Reverend Messrs. Jno. S. Douglas and Charles E. Shaw. Bishop Peterkin, assisted by Bishop Gravett, celebrated the Holy Communion, Bishop Penick reading the Epistle. The council sermon was preached by Rev. Jno. S. Alfriend, rector of Zion Church, of Charles Town, from St. Luke, xvi-31.

Immediately after divine service the Council was organized, Bishop Peterkin presiding and Rev. Jno. S. Gibson acting as Secretary for Dr. Roller, detained by having to conduct the funeral of Ex-Gov. E. W. Wilson.

The roll-call showed a quorum of both orders present.

The Bishop appointed as the Committee on Credentials of lay delegates Reverends Messrs. J. Howard Gibbons and A. B. Mitchell and Messrs. Edward Baxter and Wm. Shearer.

On motion the Rules of Order of the last Council were adopted for the government of this.

The Bishop named Mr. C. P. Flick to receive money payable to the diocesan treasurers until their arrival.

On motion of the Rector of the Parish the hours for Council were fixed as follows: Divine service each morning at 9:30 with business session following, except on Thursday, Ascension Day, when the business session will begin at 9:30 and adjourn for service at 10:30. Afternoon sessions each day at 2 o'clock. The remainder of the order to be according to the published programme.

The Bishop read the statistical portion of his report and at 12:30 Council took a recess until 2:30 on motion of Dr. S. S. Moore.

2 30 P. M.

The Bishop completed the reading of his annual address as follows:

BISHOP'S ANNUAL ADDRESS.

In greeting my Brethern of the Clergy and laity—who make up this 28th annual Council, I cannot but recall the occasion of our last meeting in this Church. It was on Wednesday, July 26th, 1899, just six years ago, and in the providence of God, and under the guidance of that Spirit whose presence is the hope of the Church, you then chose to help me in the work which had grown beyond my power to compass, a Bishop Coadjutor, who has so grown into the affections and confidence of the Diocese, that today we all count his presence and faithful and efficient service to be our best endowment. I thank God for the loving and cordial and considerate cooperation which has not only lightened my personal burden but infused a more vigorous life throughout the entire Diocese. May you be as happy in long enjoying his wisdom and zeal in your service, as you were fortunate in so soon securing them.

During the past year Death has claimed one of our band of clergy, the Rev. C. C. Pearson who came to us in 1882, twenty-three years ago, entered into rest.

At our last Council in Martinsburg it was evident to his many friends that he was by no means well, but his cheerful spirit and strong will kept us from realizing how serious was the trouble under which he labored. He loved to be among his brethren as they enjoyed having him in their midst, and so in pleasant intercourse those days passed which were to be the last of our earthly association and fellowship.

Mr. Pearson at different times served various places in the Diocese, and was therefore widely known and universally admired and respected. He was counted one of our best preachers, and in his faithful presentation of the Gospel he did good service for the Master in every post which he occupied. Without personal pretence or affectation he was genial in disposition and sincere in his friendship. With a simple faith and unwavering loyalty he served his Master and helped his fellowmen, and the Church in West Virginia cherishes and honors his memory.

JUNE.

The 27th Annual Council met in Trinity Church, Martinsburg, on Wednesday, June 1st. The comfort and convenience of our sessions were much promoted by our having the use of a commodious and well arranged Parish House. It is no doubt found to be of great use in the ordinary working of the Parish.

Beside attending the usual sessions of the Council on Thursday, 2nd, I addressed a meeting of the Womans' Auxiliary.

Sunday 5. I administered the Holy Communion in Trinity Church, the Rev. Dr. Roller, a former Rector preaching. In the afternoon I visited Christ Church, Bunker Hill, the Rev. Mr. Spurr preaching; and in the evening I preached the closing sermon in Trinity Church.

This was my second visit to Sewanee, and I must confess the more I see of it, and the better I understand the far reaching plans of those who founded the University and of those who are now carrying it on in a like spirit, the more I am profoundly impressed with the vast possibilities for good that are bound up in that great institution.

Rev. Mr. Fish, of Davis, is now ministering to both of these churches. Such consolidation may not be according to the ideal plan, but it is in the interest of an economy both in men and money which we are compelled to practice, and in the cases adopted, viz. Davis and Elkins, Man-nington and Grafton, Sutton and Buckhanon, St. Marys and Ravenswood, it is under the wise and energetic administration of our missionaries, working admirably well.

MAY.

Thursday, 4th. Delivered a lecture in Wheeling before the Twilight Club.

Saturday, 6th. Met the United Guild of Nelson Parish and the vestry at the Rectory, Middleway. About 75 persons were present and I could not but think that such united meetings was a most admirable way to unify the Parish, and to excite and direct their interest. In addition to this it gave me such opportunity of meeting the people as I could not otherwise have secured.

Sunday, 7th. A. M. In the Church of the Holy Spirit, Summit Point, I preached and confirmed 1. P. M. In St. Bartholomew's, Leetown, I preached and confirmed 3, and P. P. M. Grace Church, Middleway, I preached and confirmed 1.

Wednesday, 10th. In St. Stephen's Church, Romney, I preached and confirmed 5.

Thursday, 11th. I preached in St. Mark's Church, Berkeley Springs. This Church in connection with Mt. Zion, Hedgesville, is now under the care of Rev. Chas. E. Shaw, while Mr. Stauffer, who was in charge at Hedgesville, has, on giving that up united St. John's, Ripon, to Harper's Ferry. This seems a more natural arrangement than that which has prevailed for some years past.

Sunday, 14th. In Trinity Church, Shepherdstown, I preached and confirmed 12. In the afternoon Mr. Marshall drove me to Duffields, where there were three to be confirmed, but the rain prevented service.

Tuesday, 16. In the afternoon I preached at Eakles school house and in the evening in the school house at Dry Creek and confirmed 7. In addition to these 7 one person was confirmed in private.

Wednesday, 17th. Attended the annual meeting of the Incorporators and Directors of the Sheltering Arms Hospital. We had a goodly number of visitors from up and down the valley. Evidence of the well sustained interest in this beneficent Institution.

Sunday, 21st. In Trinity Church, Washington, I preached before the Diocesan Convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. I had the pleasure of meeting there Mr. Gardner, the President of the Brotherhood, and making arrangements with him to send some one to West Virginia that we may if possible revive our interest and activity in the Brotherhood. In the evening I preached in the Chapel at the Seminary, and had from the Professors most gratifying reports as to our four students in that Institution. I believe that most efficient and faithful work is being done at the Seminary, and that it never stood higher in the thought and consideration of the Church that it does to day. Its alumni and friends will be delighted to hear that the Bishop of New York has offered to put a new chancel to the present chapel, and this will be a very great improvement, not only to the general appearance of the building, but also as to affording additional seating capacity, now greatly needed and such enlarged space in the choir and around the chancel as will avoid the awkward crowding incident to our ordinations.

Thursday, 25th. Attended a meeting of the Diocesan Missions Committee in Parkersburg. We discussed and put forward a schedule for the next year, which the committee will lay before the Council for their information.

Sunday, 28th. A. M. Preached at the Chapel of the Good Shepherd, Parkersburg, and confirmed 4. P. M. at Christ Memorial Church, Williamstown and confirmed 1.

10 grants to churches	344 07
2 grants to Sheltering Arms	70 00
2 grants to miscellaneous	20 50
22 grants to clergy	690 00
Total	$ 1149 57

Leaving a balance of $449.44. As my appeal is made the first of each year this balance is to serve for the next six months.

The Managers of the Church News have made a most encouraging report to me for the year March 1904-1905. They have between 800 and 900 subscribers, have received $230.65 and expended $216.77, leaving them a balance of $13.88 with which to begin a new year. This paper which is conducted with so much spirit and efficiency by the Committee of Publication is more important than many of our people realize. Without pretending to compete with our large Church weeklies, it yet gives to us information about our own work which they cannot give. It already serves—and ought to serve still more as a means of communication between the Bishops and the Clergy and the People. We are all mutually encouraged by hearing of the welfare and activity of those who are so closely bound together as members of one Diocese.

There is no way in which we can more readily show our interest and sympathy one with another, and enlist too the aid of congregations and individuals in the common work than by using the columns of the Church News. If the paper had such a circulation as it deserves to have, we could all be sure that the word of Counsel or the appeal for sympathy and aid which appeared in its columns would reach everyone of our members and friends throughout the Diocese. This would make it still more a power for good. Shall it not be so?

HOSPITALS.

Our hospitals need no special mention at this time. They are steadily doing their beneficent work. The Reynolds Memorial cared for 525 patients during the year and the Sheltering Arms for 405. At the Sheltering Arms Hospital our plant has been greatly enlarged and improved by the erection of a new building (at a cost of about $3,000) which provides accomodation for our nurses and pupil nurses and also additional ward room. There is increasing demand for our graduate nurses. During the year the Reynolds Memorial has granted Diplomas to three.

PARISH REGISTERS.

I am gratified to be able to say that our Parochial Reports are this year in better shape than ever before. Effort has been made to make the Blank clear in its indications of requirements, and although no doubt there could yet be improvements, yet the effort has been so far successful that out of 83 reports received only 10 are not in shape. I am aware of the fact that the making up of reports is to some exceedingly distasteful, but I think all must acknowledge that the call is only for such items and facts as ought thoroughly to be known by those in charge of the work. The difficulty that seems to attach to the satisfactory performance of this duty may find an explanation in another failure that I fear is only too common, viz. in the matter of properly keeping up the Parish Register. One would think that for his own satisfaction a clergyman would make it a point of keeping an accurate record of official acts and of other things of interest and importance that ought to be recorded. But such is not always the case. Time and again I have had incoming Rectors complain to me that their predecessors did not leave the scratch of a pen to guide them; no record of families or communicants, of baptisms, marriages or burials. But recently there has come to my knowledge the fact that a certain Parish Register contained no note of the death and burial of a faithful man, who certainly during my Episcopate of 27 years—and I know not for how long before—has been in every way the main stay of his Parish. I have also information that on another Register four weddings have been noted simply by entering the names of the parties, no mention being made of parents or witnesses, and no date given—such a Register would hardly be entitled to be admitted as evidence in a Court of Law—and no doubt many similar cases of neglect could be cited. I have recently noted that the secretary of the Diocese and the Rector of St. Matthew's, Wheeling, have adopted a card system, modelled after the method which prevails in public libraries of keeping track of the books, and it must greatly simplify the problem. It does not follow that one must have an expensive Register in which to keep their Records. A cheap blank book will answer every purpose, and it seems to me that every congregation however small, ought to have something of the kind so that we shall know where to find a definite record of that which has to do with the condition and progress of our Church life.

THE KALENDAR.

I do not care to make any additional statement, at this time, in regard to the value of the Kalendar which I put forth as a guide for offerings during the year, except to say that each year's experience convinces me of the great importance of the adoption, and conscientious and persistent adherence to some such scheme, in every congregation in the Diocese, be it large or small. Since I have discussed the matter so much, in time past, I shall now only call your attention to what the present parochial reports show, viz. that in the matter of offerings for the cause of Religious and Theological Education, which is called for by canonical enactment, and therefore comes to all with full canonical as well as moral obligation, and in addition to these obligations, is commended to us by our loyalty to the Seminary which has supplied 26 out of our present 42 clergy, and by the need of fair dealing with the Education Society, which on an average, each year, spends in support of our West Virginia young men, about $4 for every $1 received from us. The Parochial Reports I say, show that in this matter of offerings for the cause of Religious and Theological Education, that out of our 59 organized congregations 35 representing about 2000 communicants, absolutely ignored the whole matter. To say nothing of canonical and moral obligations, I can hardly think this to be fair dealing with a Society and Seminary to whom we are so deeply indebted year by year, and to whose support we are pledged by every consideration of gratitude and duty and interest. In behalf of these 2000 communicants, I feel constrained to say that their failure is to be ascribed to the fact that the cause of which we speak was never brought to their attention. The inference is plain that if some well considered plan were adopted and faithfully followed up, then no cause that has these both canonical and moral obligation could be forgotten or ignored.

GENERAL CLERGY RELIEF FUND.

I feel I must also in this connection speak a word for the General Clergy Relief Fund, of which this Diocese is a beneficiary to the extent of $200 annually, paid to the widow of one of our former clergy. We have been and still are solicited to merge our Diocesan Fund, for which we make our offering on Christmas Day, and which paid last year to six beneficiaries about $600, but so far we have deemed it inexpedient to do this. I am not discussing the question here, but have brought it forward to remind you that while we are exercising our undoubted right to provide such a fund for ourselves and to administer it at our discretion, yet that does not justify us in ignoring the General Clergy Relief Fund, which the Church has, through the General Convocation established. This Fund has now on its list about 400 beneficiaries. It aims to give a pension or annuity to every disabled clergy whether he be young or old, and whatever his residence, and to the widows and orphans of deceased clergymen, and this it does without payment of dues or fees or premiums or age requirements or Diocesan limitations. Such a fund certainly claims our cordial cooperation and support, and especially when it comes before us endorsed by the General Convocation which recommends that a definite day of each year to be set apart for offerings for this fund. We do not need any argument to convince us of the need of providing for an old age pension which shall be available as a right, by reason of age, and years of honorable service, and yet out of our 59 organized congregations only 14 gave anything to this worthy object, which constitutes a constant and pathetic appeal for our support. The reason for this neglect has already been indicated i. e. for lack of some systematic plan cordially and persistently carried out this and other worthy objects are crowded out of our minds, and so some of us may come at last to claim aid from a fund which we have, during our years of service, continually ignored.

REVIVAL IN WALES.

It is not my custom, as you know, to consume your time by the discussion of subjects that are perhaps sufficiently ventilated in the religious press of the day, but I feel that a few words about the remarkable revival in Wales may serve to direct thought in such wise as will be helpful. I suppose if the question were directly put to us, and we were pressed for an answer, we would all freely acknowledge that there was abundant room and great need for a revival of true religion throughout the length and breadth of the land. Such confession, just in proportion as it is the expression of a deep consciousness of need, lies at the foundation of every true revival or religion, and directly contributes to its progress. "They that are whole need not a physician but they that are sick." Of course you understand that we use the word revival in the sense of its permanent effect upon life in all relations, and not of its spasmodic effect artificially generated, and therefore tending to disturb and distort such relations. It is possible that we may be too conservative in our dealings with all that comes under the general head of "revivals," but certainly the whole genius of our church is rather to lead men, reverently and patiently along what we may call the permanent ways of religious life, than in anywise to seem to limit the outpouring of God's spirit to channels of our own devising, and to force men into these channels.

Some months ago, one of our papers clearly stated what it believed to be the essential difference between the revival in Wales, and that which was afterward inaugurated in London; and without any reflection upon the pure zeal or Christian character of the Evangelist who undertook to direct the movement in London, it seems to me that we cannot but acknowledge the truth of the statement made, that these Evangelists went to London to create a revival by organization, and by machinery upon well defined psychological principles. This may be a perfectly legitimate method of procedure, but you do not find in any such movement as that the origin of the revival in Wales. Indeed so far from it, it would puzzle anyone to tell just how it originated. You could only say "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but cannot tell whence it cometh, or whither it goeth." Of Mr. Roberts, who more than any other person is associated in our minds with this great awakening, it is said that he seems to be working upon the principle that God is in men, and that they need but to realize and actualize His Presence among them. It is worthy of note that the revival, in which he has been prominent, seems in no way dependent upon himself, but has manifested itself where he has never been. As the result of this revival men are found fulfilling more faithfully their duty in the various relations of life. It is in the main a natural, rational, spiritual revival, so that the movement, as a whole, seems calculated not only to leave substantial impress upon the spiritual life of the people, but to make a permanent contribution to it.

Under all these conditions the lesson is very plain to us. Living as we are, under the Dispensation of the Spirit, we must be continually looking to Him, and our expectations must ever be from Him. If our need be great His power is also great and His promise is sure. He wants to be enquired of by us, then shall we know if we follow on to know the Lord. If we open our mouths wide He will fill them. For this work of advancement and revival in the Church, shall manifest itself in the purer lives of Christian men and women, and the more active gathering of the outcasts and aliens into the fold. This work shall not be by human might or power, but led by the Spirit of the Lord.

And what I have here said has a direct bearing upon an aspect of our work, which I have time and again mentioned as of importance and promise. I mean the work of Evangelization as contrasted with, or at least supplementary to the work of organization. I suppose it is perfectly natural that a minister should look for a visible tangible reward in his work, in the building up and increase of his congregation, but over and above all that, it seems to me that a great field of usefulness is opened out to us in the work of Evangelization. We can ordinarily get just as many people to come to our services, where we have no organization, and perhaps no prospect of one, as where we have organized Parish or Mission. It seems to me that this is to be taken as indicating a line of duty and of privilege. I believe that in these special services, we may have from time to time in school houses and Court Houses and it may be in the open air, we get at many persons, not otherwise accessible. Our chief responsibility, as those that have received the Gospel, is to give it to those who have not received it, and not only in the case of those who live in Heathen lands, but also to the multitudes in our own Christian land, who are scattered abroad as sheep having no shepherd. If the people will not come to us, we must, as best we can, go to them, yes out into the highways and hedges and compel them to come in. Sometimes prejudiced people will not come into one of our church buildings, but they will, with the crowd attend services elsewhere. I do not know to what extent tent or open air meetings are available in our towns and cities, but it really seems that these towns and cities, though not large, have already a considerable population that it is hard to reach in any other way. In speaking of all such work a representative of one of our Boards of Home Missions has wisely said that to say that we have done all that we can do to get the people into the Churches, and that they still refuse to come is to admit defeat. The people may be at fault, but you must remember that the Church was established for faulty people. The greater their fault, the greater becomes our responsibility in the matter of reaching them with the helpful ministrations of the Gospel. Even though the methods may be unusual. And it is more important to consider all this, because we cannot deny the truth of an assertion recently made, that we are face to face with the tremendous and menacing fact that people are going away from the Churches by the mere growth of the population, in all our great cities. And though we, in West Virginia, may not seem to be specially exposed to the danger, yet the beginnings of it may be discovered even in our large towns and small cities. Even if there be not, in proportion, so many unattached, churchless, Godless people in small places as in large, yet, since there is a constant flow from the country and small towns and cities to the larger places, the whole subject becomes one of increasing importance.

It has been pertinently asked, in the meantime what are churches doing. Too often they are engaged in barrack-ground drill, instead of being engaged in active and effective propaganda. Cultivated parochialism is the note of too many of the churches. It is unfortunately fatally easy for a company of good and pious people to sink into this condition of cultivated parochialism. We gather into our churches a community of people much alike in qualities of mind, social condition, and intellectual tastes, and the Church thus constituted is apt to become more of a social club, than a propagandist centre. We have plenty of force in our churches for the Christian conquest of our great cities, and the regeneration of our villages and towns, but we fail to mobilize these forces. The saying of Napoleon that the only way to have a conquering army is to have an army that is always fighting, applies also to the greater questions of spiritual conquest. No man can keep his own soul alive, who is not trying to save other souls, and no church that is not passionately trying to win the world that is without, is truly alive.

GENERAL MISSIONS.

During the past winter, under the continued depression in the financial condition of our general missionary treasury, I felt constrained, after an unusually long and anxious meeting of the Board of Missions, to offer, for this Diocese, an advance of twenty per cent, on the amount that had been assigned to us as our proper apportionment for the current year. This leads the Board to expect from us $3,120 instead of $2,600. This may seem to some to have been rather a rash proceeding for a Diocese, not strong in its own resources, and essentially missionary in character, but the urgency of the situation was such as to call for special and immediate action. The enlarged scope of our general work, owing to the demands of our new dependencies, and the continued needs of many of the old fields taken in connection with the discouraging and indeed alarming failures in various parts of the church, to meet the apportionment expected of them, had brought things to such a pass, that I could not but feel that everyone who was a lover of the Church, and servant of the Master, ought to gird himself for a special effort to meet the immediate and pressing need. It seemed vain to wait for a general concerted movement to meet the emergency, for the fascinating calculation of the great results that would follow if all would lend a helping hand, and take a long pull, and a strong pull and a pull all together, have been proved by experience, to be exceedingly delusive. The question thus seemed to be, not how can we inaugurate a scheme of more general cooperation, for the Board has been and still is continually putting forth vigorous effort to do that very thing, and it would seem is leaving no stone unturned to bring about such a happy consummation. But the question seemed rather what can we sur-selves do to meet the prevailing condition without waiting for others, and saying it may be with cautious reserve "what is this man or that man doing to advance the cause? It is this immediate duty as it appeared to us, we have tried to take up in making our additional pledge, and I count upon the cordial cooperation of the Diocese to make the pledge good. We gave a like amount last year, and we are not fewer in numbers, nor poorer in pocket than we were then. Even if the limit has been reached, in so far as offerings in the Church are concerned, of which there is grave doubt, yet there are many individuals among our people, who would cheerfully respond to a personal application, were it wisely and strongly made. I am convinced that in these individuals we have an undeveloped field of resources, and that also the scattered friends and members of the Church, who are not under the usual charges for the maintenance of local worship, could do a vast deal more than they do, if we of the clergy exercised a more decided leadership just along these lines. As far as the general support of the aggressive work of the Church is concerned, there are no doubt hundreds of communicants and friends of the Church, who to the question why stand ye here all the day idle, might well make answer, because no man hath hired us. Our failure to approach men directly in the great matter of personal religion, and confession of Christ, is paralleled by our failure to bring home to them patiently and judiciously the duty of personal service in and support of the Church.

THANK OFFERING FOR GENERAL CONVENTION.

In addition to the instrumentalities that are already employed it has been determined to try and unite the men of the Church, members and friends, after the example set time and again by the women in their united offerings, to unite the men I say in a thank-offering to be presented at the General Convention, to meet in Richmond, in 1907. The occasion being the 300th anniversary of our first service at Jamestown, Va., is certainly one to suggest and foster such a plan. An essential feature of the scheme is, that whatever use may be made of circular letters, yet that, at some time, a personal appeal shall be made to every man member or friend of the Church, that he will take part in this offering. In order to carry out this plan and cooperate more heartily with the Central Committee and with our Brethren all over the country, I have appointed as our Diocesan Committee, our delegation to the General Convention in Boston, in connection with Bishop Gravatt, Mr. Spurr and myself. I cannot tell yet just what form our action will take but I bespeak for this committee the cordial cooperation of the clergy and laymen throughout the Diocese. Having more than two full years in which to make this personal canvass, the task does not appear to be very onerous. If we will throw aside our timidity and false shame, and rise to the height of this great privilege and opportunity we may help kindle an enthusiasm which will in a short time do the work of many languid years.

DIOCESAN SELF SUPPORT.

And this brings me to say that in my judgment, the time has come, when for the credit of the Diocese, and the good of the common cause, we should make a still further step to show our interest in, and to render efficient aid to the general missionary work of the Church. Some of you may remember that before the formation of the Diocese in 1877, it was proposed to form the territory of the State of West Virginia into a missionary jurisdiction, and as such throw the burden of its support on the General Church. I make bold to say, that we are all now glad that this was not done. Still there were great searchings of heart at the time, as to what was really the best thing to do under all the circumstances, and naturally there were wide differences of opinion as to the wisest course. An illustration of these wide differences has but recently come to my knowledge, and it may be well to speak of it just here. The truth is that with optimism on one hand and pessimism on the other, there was not only need for great caution in forming an opinion, but it was needful also to keep in mind, that in matters pertaining to the Kingdom of God, we must always remember that there are at work other factors than simply those which appear to a casual observer.

The case alluded to was simply this, that at the time of the formation of the Diocese, there were two gentlemen connected with our church than whom none, in West Virginia, were more prominent, or apparently likely to be better informed as to prevalent conditions. One of them wrote to warn the Bishop elect, though the warning never reached him, and I think I may safely say would not have been effectual if it had, and say that he ought by no means to regard the call of the Church in West Virginia, because he, knowing whereof he spoke, felt constrained in all fairness, to say that the Church people in this new Diocese had pledged themselves all together beyond their ability, and that there was no future for the movement save that of disastrous failure. I need hardly say to you, who are here today, that by the good hand of our God upon us, and by the constant and cordial cooperation of an intelligent and faithful people clerical and lay, that the Diocese has lived down that gloomy prediction.

The other one of the gentlemen took an entirely different view of the situation. Looking at the whole enterprise from a broader outlook, and with a more hopeful spirit, he pledged himself to make up such deficiency in the financial resources of the Diocese, as seemed to some so inevitable, as effectually to block the way of advance. But as he himself informed me several years ago, he has never been called upon to make good his pledge. The Diocese has promptly and fully met all its obligations, and I may add that today, although these obligations have more than doubled since my consecration, twenty-seven years ago, the Diocese still meets them promptly and fully. Might not this be taken as a good illustration of what Bishop Coleridge Patteson said, that Education consisted in teaching people to bear responsibilities, and in putting those responsibilities upon them as they could bear them.

But although West Virginia did decline to throw the burden of her general support upon the Church at large, it nevertheless seemed expedient that she should receive help in sustaining her missions. This help she has been receiving regularly during these twenty-seven years of her independent existence, and no doubt but that this help has enabled us to cultivate our widely extended field, as otherwise we could not have done. But I think that after these twenty-seven years, we may be said to have attained to our majority. During this time our fourteen Clergy have increased to forty-two, our twenty-five churches to upwards of eighty, our eleven Rectories to forty-two, our endowment from nothing to upwards of $36,000, our Fund for Disabled Clergy and the widows and orphans of deceased clergy from nothing to about $7,000, the sum total of the money we raise for all purposes from about $10,000 to upwards of $80,000, to the $175,000 worth of property we had twenty-seven years ago we have added about $750,000 more, and thus find ourselves vastly better equipped for aggressive work than the most sanguine could have expected in such time. Our little band of about 1200 communicants has grown to nearly 5,000 and we are by the labors of our faithful missionaries, extending our influence everywhere throughout the State. And beside all this, to the amazement of some of our friends, we have taken the great forward step of adding a Bishop Coadjutor to our working force, specially in the interests of aggressive work, providing for him as for the Bishop, a comfortable and commodious residence. We have also two Hospitals and Training Schools in successful operation, which during the last year cared for nearly 1,000 patients, of which number three-fourths were practically free, and all this time the General Church has been given in about $2,000 annually, in all about $50,000 to help maintain and extend our work throughout the Diocese, and in addition to $400 year by year to enable us to carry on some work among our colored people. Under all these circumstances and conditions, it becomes a pressing question, has not the time come for us to assume more direct responsibility for the missionary work within our borders, and thanking the Board of Missions for its nursing care during all these years, now relieve that Board of further obligation, except in so far as its aid is extended for work among the colored people, and except also what we may receive from the Woman's Auxiliary united offerings, for women workers in the Diocese.

We all know enough of human nature to understand that it will perhaps never be convenient to surrender the $1,450 we now receive from the General Church. We, like other people and churches, cling to our subsidies with tenacious grasp, and always think we can show peculiar conditions prevailing which make it still expedient in our case, if not in that of others to continue former missionary appropriations. But, my Brethren, we can not always confine our activities to that which is convenient and easy to do; we must sometimes at least rise to the height of undertaking that which calls for effort and self-denial, and be ready to forego certain advantages we are enjoying, if so be that we help advance the Kingdom and honor the Master. I think that the time has now come for us whose Diocese in coterminous with this growing and prosperous state, to put forth this effort and exercise this self denial, and I ask the Diocese here in Council assembled to make this judgment their own, and lead all the people, who look to us for guidance, to make this forward movement to which we seemed to be called by all the conditions and circumstances of the case, and may we not take there conditions and circumstances as being for us the voice of the Master Himself. Yes! It is time for us to go forward in the name of the Lord, and, as far as we can, clear our skirts of any complicity in the present lagging advance of the great army.

I thus bring this matter before you, because on every account, your voice ought to be distinct and emphatic, so that it shall appear that this advance is not simply on the word of the Bishop, but in accordance with the desire and judgment of the Diocese itself. And while asking you to make this great advance, I think it but right to say that I am not acting hastily or unadvisedly, or in such a way as to imperil the support of those brave and loyal missionaries, who are holding posts that are scattered about on our thin long drawn line. I believe that the experience of the past would keep all these men from feeling that the Bishops had forgotten them in the excitement of a general advance. But for others, especially for the lay people in our small congregations, who may be disposed to think that their interests and necessities have been somewhat overlooked, I would speak this reassuring word, that an efficient plan of meeting the condition of the case has been well worked out before the proposal is now made. Let me briefly outline this plan for the information of all concerned.

The assessment for Diocesan Missions has stood at about $3,000 since 1896, nine years ago, when it was first imposed, the exact assessment that year being $2,970. Since that time the Clergy have increased from 34 to 42, and the communicants from 3,925 to about 5,000. We have also increased our Episcopal Fund from about $5,000 to upwards of $36,000 and the income from this increased fund, under the circumstances, more than provides for the support of the Bishop Coadjutor, whose constant and efficient work throughout the Diocese adds greatly to our strength. So then it would seem that we are in condition to ask our congregations voluntarily to add something, say from $250 to $500 to what they already pay to this fund. In addition to this substantial increase which seems to be altogether reasonable, it is further proposed to ask the various congregations that receive missionary assistance and they are about 50 in number to do, each one something more in self support. An average of even $5 would make up an additional sum of $250, but as the report of our Diocesan Missions Committee will show, we expect them to do much more than that. By these means we expect to make up at least one half of the sum heretofore received from the General Church, which we now relinquish. To assure the balance and so relieve our minds of any apprehension that our work will be in any wise crippled I have appealed to three persons to join me in guaranteeing the amount, and they have readily and cordially consented, so that the way seems clear for the proposed action.

The cooperation I have secured has been sought after consultation with the Rectors of the Churches concerned, and it has been so cordially and unhesitatingly given that I am convinced that further effort along this line would have easily secured the whole amount needed, but I felt that this could hardly be done with justice to the Churches themselves, because they ought themselves to feel and to share the increased responsibility. I present this thought however for the careful consideration of the Clergy whether others of them, besides those mentioned above, have not individuals in their congregations, who would desire to join the four persons mentioned above, as uniting with them to share proportionally the whole obligation, or as contributing some definite sum towards the amount that may be needed, and so lessening the obligation of the four who are now standing in the breach.

The Bishops naturally hesitate about making too many personal appeals to their people, but at this time, and under present conditions, we waive personal considerations and feel that you have a right to look to our leadership in a matter of such moment. In the providence of God, this advance seems now called for and we do not believe that you will be found wanting. It is our hope that the aid we now relinquish will under the careful administration of the Board prove helpful to those who may need it even more than we do.

I cannot but think that a wise decision in regard to this matter of common interest and concern will inform and inspire our people with a truer missionary spirit and if we do, what we do, with the high purpose of duty, and in a spirit of loyal devotion to the gracious Master, whose we are and whom we serve, that God, even our own God, will give us His blessing.

On motion of Rev. D. W. Howard a committee of five was appointed to consider and report upon the subject, introduced to Council by the Bishop in his address, of our relation to the Board of Missions with a view of relinquishing the aid hitherto extended by it to our missionary work.

Since the last Council St. Andrew's on the Mountain and Christ Church, Blue Ridge, have been placed together. Twenty acres of land have been secured for the work at St. Andrew's, costing $333.35. The Deaconess' House is being enlarged and improved at a cost of $500.00. The Chapel has had a stone foundation placed under it and the building painted at a cost of $185.00. The Industrial Hall has just been completed. It is built of stone and has cost about $2200.00. This will be a most valuable addition to the plant. The money for all this work has been secured by Rev. B. M. Spurr who has been untiring in his interest in behalf of this Mountain work.

Mr. Thornton T. Perry has given his time and thought to the construction of these buildings and without his interest in this work, it would have been impossible to have built up the "plant."

Rev. Geo. A. Gibbons presented the Annual Report of the Standing Committee as follows:

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORT.

July 2nd, 1904 to June 3rd, 1905.

July 2nd, 1904. The Standing Committee recommended the Rev. Paca Kennedy (Deacon) for Ordination to the Priesthood. The Committee at the same time consented to the Ordination and Consecration of the Rev. Robert Strange, D. D., to be Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of East Carolina.

Sept. 5, 1904. The Rev. C. Nov. 21st, 1904. The Bishop having laid before the Standing Committee his "urgent reasons for shortening the time of the Candidacy of the Rev. C. Hely Molony, the Committee consented and advised the Bishop in this particular case to shorten the time of his candidacy to the canonical limit. The papers of said Mr. Molony all being in due form and harmony, the Committee recommended him for Ordination to the Diaconate. At this meeting the Committee having received a communication from the Bishop concerning a proposed change in the time for the meeting of this session of the Council, and after due consideration, the Committee unanimously agreed to concur in whatever change of time for the meeting the Bishop should think best to make, and so notified him.

The Rev. Mr. Gibson offered this, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved: The Twenty-eighth Annual Council assembled in Christ Church, Clarksburg, expresses to its rector, Rev. James F. Plummer and to its vestry and people and to the good people of the city its grateful appreciation of the cordial hospitality extended to it and its individual members.

The Rev. J. S. Alfriend cordially invited the Council to meet in Zion Church, Charles Town, next year. The invitation was accepted.

The Rev. Dr. Moore presented the following report of the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Committee:

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE DIOCESAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

We beg leave to submit the following account of our work.

We have received during the year from all sources $3735.88, as indicated by the Treasurer's report—a most gratifying increase of nearly $550 as compared with the year preceding. Our expenditures have been slightly in excess of receipts, which has resulted in a reduction of our balance to $1071.21, nearly $50 less than that of last year. Attention may again be called to the fact often noted that this seemingly large balance is necessary at this season always because we are approaching the end of a quarter, when probably all of it will be needed.

With this expenditure twenty-three men have been aided, of whom four are no longer engaged in the work in this Diocese. The places served by these men, with more or less frequency, would aggregate nearly if not quite, one hundred and would include a very large proportion of our entire list of communicants. These places have been grouped for purposes of present administration into about twenty mission fields, as more fully shown in the annexed tabulated statement.

These results have been obtained only by such combinations as merge at least seven distinct charges, into circuits with others, that are more or less convenient. The committee is fully aware of the fact that thus some of the charges are entirely too large, thus imposing upon the clergy tasks which they feel are beyond their powers, and yet there has at present seemed no way out of the difficulty.

In consequence of this consolidation, your committee has felt encouraged to take another forward step in the direction of the accomplishment of its long-cherished aim, to provide a salary of at least $800 and a rectory for each of its workers. But, in order that this may be done, it is absolutely necessary that the fields aided shall make some addition to their contributions for self support. The amount of such increase needed is not in any case large and in most fields is distributed among a number of places so as to make a very small addition to the annual contribution at each place, and it is most earnestly hoped that a faithful effort will be made everywhere to see that the scheme is carried out to its most minute detail. Your Committee would press this point with the utmost urgency and would ask that a careful study of the scheme be made and that the work, which, we believe, can in every case be done, shall be efficiently carried out. We refer for fuller information as to the details to the annexed tabulated statement which has been prepared by Bishop Peterkin with great care and labor for the guidance of the Committee and for the information of the Diocese.

In conclusion your Committee would venture to remind the Brethren that, in view of our relinquishment of the further aid of the General Board we have new fields of labor under our care and oversight and additional responsibilities to those which we have borne before. In their relation to our work these are like new possessions, not yet brought under our Master's sway, and that we may bring them, is part of the responsibility resting upon us. To meet this we need new gifts of grace. We must seek to kindle in our hearts new fires of enthusiasm for our Master and His cause, and as their warmth and glow spread out from heart to heart, from life to life, we must strive to deepen and intensify in ourselves and others that spirit of loyalty and devotion to Him, whose we are and whom we serve, which will enable us to feel every burden light, every task a joy, for the privilege of serving him.

It is to be noted that the Missionaries pay their own traveling expenses out of their salaries as given above. Besides the 19 Mission fields mentioned above (two others listed becoming self-supporting) to be sustained by the Diocese there is a mission church for colored people to which the General Board appropriates $400 (the small congregation raising $80). There are also 16 self supporting churches which raise a salary fund of $18,747. All these the Bishop supplements by grants from his special fund to the amount of $600. So that the total salary fund and in the Diocese amounts to $34,697, of which only $400 is from the General Board.

The results tabulated above have been obtained only by such combinations as merge at least seven distinct charges, into circuits with others that are more or less convenient. The committee is fully aware of the fact that some of the charges are entirely too large, thus imposing upon the clergy tasks which they feel are beyond their powers, and yet there has at present seemed no way out of the difficulty.

3rd. That the needs of the Diocese imperatively require larger contributions to this fund, if the Diocese would not continue to be so largely obliged to the Education Society of Virginia for two thirds or more of the money needed to assist candidates for orders in preparing for the work of the ministry.

The Rev. A. G. Grinnan made a verbal report as Chairman of the Committee on Episcopal and Permanent Fund, and called attention to the arrearages to this fund.

The Rev. J. F. Plummer moved that the Trustee of the Episcopal Fund be requested to make a supplemental report of monies received to the end of this Council. Carried.

The Rev. J. S. Douglas presented the following report:

The Committee on the State of the Church beg leave to report the following:

There does not seem to have been a time in the history of the Diocese when the church was in more encouraging and promising condition than she is now.

There seems to be a steady movement forward in every branch of her activity. She has been growing steadily since her organization twenty-seven years ago, and today her roots have firmer hold in the soil of parochial life, and her branches are reaching out further into the Missionary field than ever before, and a prominent feature of this growth is the healthiness of it, which is its own evidence of its being watered with the dews of divine blessing.

The financial reports will show a marked increase of money given (not only for current expenses and other parochial work—which in themselves might only signify an increased selfishness—but for aggressive work in the Diocesan Missionary field and in that yet wider field which is the world.)

There is always a difficulty in taking the spiritual measure of a Church, as of an individual but both can be known as far as man may know, by their fruits, and in these the Church has been abundant. Her hospitals are active in doing the Master's work of relieving the physical ailments of those intrusted to them, and also ministering to their moral and spiritual needs; her children in the Sunday Schools are receiving such thought and attention as they have never received before, and as ways and means are being prayerfully devised for their better instruction and more efficient usefulness, they are responding in a most encouraging way by letting their light shine in abundant measure through their good works. The laborers in the harvest are receiving more souls for their hire, as we see by the increased number of those confirmed by the Bishops during the past year. The Woman's and Junior Auxiliaries are doing invaluable service, and add to this the desire and evident determination of the Church in this Diocese to stand alone in carrying on its missionary work—that the help heretofore received from the Board might go to extend the Kingdom elsewhere, give, we think good proof of a healthy spiritual state of the Church.

The Committee deem it within their province to note one of the causes of these encouraging conditions. It is the wide and energetic leadership, under God, of our beloved Bishops. They are not merely sending but they are going. They are clearing the way and the Clergy are feeling—as they cannot but feel—the inspiration of such leadership, and they in their turn are trying to pass on this inspiration to the people committed to their charge.

And so we all, Bishops, Clergy and Laity as we dwell with thankfulness upon the blessings wherewith God has blessed us, and the measure of prosperity He has meted out to us, are not unmindful of the great work yet to be done for the Master and we covet a double portion of His spirit that in the years to come we may do greater works than these.

Respectfully Submitted,

JOHN S. DOUGLAS.

By order of the Council, this page is dedicated to the memory of our lamented brother, the

REV. C. C. PEARSON,

BORN AUG. 13TH, 1827; DIED SEPT. 16TH, 1904.

He served various places in the Diocese, was widely known and universally admired and respected. He was acknowledged one of our best preachers, and in the faithful presentation of the Gospel he did good service for the Master in every post which he occupied. Without personal pretence or affectation, he was genial in disposition and sincere in his friendships.

With a simple faith and unswerving loyalty he served his Master and helped his fellow men, and the Church in West Virginia cherishes and honors his memory.

A festival was gotten up last summer, the proceeds of which, $10.00, was given to the minister. Also, the Bishop sends word to credit Boone with $2.00 for his special fund. No money has been raised by the congregation as such. On Monday and Tuesday, May 8th and 9th, just passed, we had a very pleasant visit from Bishop Gravatt. He preached in Christ's Church the first night, and the second in the Methodist Church at Racine. I have not been able to visit Bull Creek since the last report. I understand, however, there are still left 7 baptized and 3 confirmed persons in two families. Other services and the Holy Communion were announced at Christ's Church, but not held for lack of attendance.

Remarks—Financially, the Parish is up on everything. We have over paid our apportionment $9.10, have made some contribution towards outside objects, and have made repairs to the church property. Morally, I hope things are a little improved, as we have only the increased interest in church attendance by which to judge. Perhaps the condition of our people in this respect is as good as we could expect it to be in Sutton. Those who are faithful, are so in a marked degree, but there are some that should be who are not in the least interested. The people need training in church work, etc.

Remarks—The congregation has not assumed heavy responsibilities during the past year and consequently is doing very well financially. Attendance on services is very good. The people appear interested and are doing as well perhaps as could reasonably be expected. The work is small and the greatest difficulty is to keep the people from becoming discouraged. Some growth of the town seems to be reasonably assured and we are in hopes that the church may grow in proportion. The condition of the mission is perhaps in as healthy a condition as could be expected under the various adverse conditions that obtain.

Remarks—Our people are so widely scattered at these points that it is next to an impossibility to minister to them with any degree of efficiency and thus in some instances to arouse and in others to strengthen a dying interest in a distant church. It is remarkable that they cling to the church as well as they do. Thus these scattered ones not having the spiritual interest that they might have, neither have any other kind of interest in any marked degree, excepting one or two notable exceptions.

The only item doubtful that I know of is "official acts." This as reported is from the register. In comparing the report it should be borne in mind that there were four months in 1904 during which time there was no Rector, and only occasional services, consequently the regular offerings were not taken and the envelopes for the vacant days were not used by the people.

pose. Have spent considerable time in getting up this report and trust it is accordance with your ruling. Yours truly, THOS. H. MOHLER, Treas.
